FACULTY

To the Class of 1937:

You will meet and respect people who THINK more rapidly and accurately than you. Those who DO things better than you can do them will be looked up to and admired.

But more important than either thinking or doing is believing. If you can keep your BELIEF in yourself, your family, and your God, regardless of obstacles and discouragement, success and happiness will follow. This is my wish for you.

CLASS OFFICERS

Leon Henry Plante

A public man of light and leading.

Leon is ever mindful of his fellow classmates and it is because of this that his popularity is without bounds. He is liked in every phase of school life; in social activities, in athletics, and in his class.

We give to him, our President, a hearty and sincere wish that he will be as successful in his future years as he was while with the class of '37. Councillor, Open Meeting 2, Dramatic Club, Basketball 3, Football 2, 3, 4.

Sirkka Ada Waris

*You all know her—happy, full of fun,
She coaxes a smile from everyone.*

Scholastic ability, a warm cheery smile, a vital personality all merged into one form—the image from which emerges our well-beloved Vice-President. Possessing the happy medium of combining social and intellectual work, Siggie is truly a modern leader of the new era. H. M. S. Pinafore, Basketball 2, French Club, Class Dues Committee, Belle of Barcelona, Ticket Committee for Senior Play 3, Dramatic Club, Glee Club 2, 3, 4, Open Meeting 2, 4, Senior Class Play, Round Table 4.

Margaret Arline Small

*The joy of youth and health her eyes display'd
And ease of heart her every look conveyed.*

Peg has been the gayest and most charming Secretary a class could ever have. Tho' diminutive in more ways than one, she accomplishes her cheer-leading and acting in no small way. A grand friend; even a certain football star thinks so. Basketball 2, Senior Class Play Ticket Committee, Junior-Senior Reception Committee 3, French Club 3, 4, Dramatic Club, Open Meeting, Cheer Leader 2, 3, 4, Senior Calss Play 4.

Raymond Henry Jena

Faithfulness and sincerity are the highest things.

Though himself in the pink, Ray, our loyal and competent class Treasurer for two years, managed to keep our class out of the red. To sharpen his business wits, Ray worked part-time for Mr. Howard, and also has made countless friends in that popular room. Councillor 2, 3, Red and Gray 2, 3, 4, Baseball, Dramatic Club 3, 4.

1937

BOULDER

PORTRAITS

Richard Joseph Abare

A youth, light-hearted and content.

Richard is a lad who is constantly found in the company of the fair sex. He does not believe in the saying, "Silence best speaks the mind," and is found talking many times without permission. He comes from Ashburnham and generally has his lessons well prepared.

Aarne Aho

He's a man to make his way.

Aarne is one of the larger members of our class who causes the teachers little trouble. Very taciturn, he seldom has much to say. It is customary, however, to see him on the Walton Street courts during his leisure time, proving himself an able match for any tennis opponent.

George Louis Alario

A proper man, as one shall ever see in a summer's day.

George is one of our chaps who speaks little, yet is aware of everything going on. He is like any average youth, who believes in studying, but not too much. His friends are found among the boys, who consider him a good pal.

James Theodore Altieri

He who sings frightens away his ills.

Jimmie is no exception to the rule that singing and happiness travel together, spreading their beneficial influence on mankind. We can never forget his renderings of "O Sole Mio" in grammar school days. Here's to Jimmie, the Caruso of the class of '37. Glee Club 3, 4.

Marjorie Mae Abar

She's a jolly all around good lass.

Margie, although her lithe form suggests an active sports life, leans quite to the opposite in her sincere enjoyment of Vergil, English, and politics—mostly when confronted with Mr. Dooling. Despite her intellectual yearnings, Margie is always eager to join a merry group. Glee Club 2, French Club, Dramatic Club 3, 4, Round Table, Write-up Committee 4.

Mary Irene Abell

The better known, the greater is her worth appreciated.

Height doesn't stunt Irene's progress; she belongs to the small percentage who intend to continue their education at some Business College, and has even secured a driving license. It is an enigma how she manages to see above the steering wheel. Basketball 2, 4, Hockey 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club, Glee Club 3, 4, Reader's Guild 4.

Ulrika Bray Adams

But O! she dances such a way.

"Stepping sprightly, tripping lightly," that's Ricky! With her lithe body and fleeting steps, timed to the dance, she entrances her audience. Her favorite study this year is sewing—maybe that accounts for her good taste in clothes. Basketball 3, 4, Dramatic Club, Glee Club 3, Round Table 4.

Helen Suzanne Ahola

*None knew her but to love her
None named her but to praise.*

Helen is the cute product of Hyde Park High, Boston, now of F. H. S. In her short sojourn with us we have discovered that she seldom misses the honor roll, is fond of knitting, drives a car exceedingly well, and lives near the Townsend line.

Dante Paul ArcangeliDrink the pure pleasure of the rural life.*

Sub is another Westminster lad who seems to hold a hearty dislike for girls. Most of his time there in the country is spent either hunting or fishing—but rarely at home with a book.

Carroll Everett ArchibaldI know it is a sin for me to sit and grin.*

Archie is one of those happy-go-lucky boys usually to be seen walking about school with nothing much on his mind. At least he never thinks about his studies. From what we hear he is quite an accomplished tap dancer and singer.

Abbott AronoffWhere is my wandering girl tonight?*

Abbott has the notorious reputation of being the high school's biggest flirt, but this is not to be taken seriously; for that primarily means his dear friends, the cows, whom he cheers up during summer months while riding behind the truck.

William Joseph BeanA poor excuse is better than none.*

The cutest boy in high school is also the best excuse maker. If you lack this ability, call on Bill and he will gladly put it over for you. Bill is also one of Miss Haskin's regular visitors and has spent many an hour in the assembly hall discussing the topics of the day. Assistant Manager, Basketball 3.

Virginia Theresa AndreucciCarefree as the wind am I.*

Virginia, with her charming way, has won a host of friends, especially among commercial students. When skating season comes you will find this petite member of our class at Coggs Hall, gliding smoothly over the ice, or over the equally smooth B. F. Gym floor.

Claire Paulette AubuchonA maiden petite with charms so sweet.*

Claire is one of the many girls whose following is comprised largely of boys. In a beauty contest Claire could give anyone a battle. One of her greatest aids in finding friends is her humor which is quick and very witty. French Club 2, 3, 4, Junior Prom Committee 3, Glee Club 3, 4, Dramatic Club, Class Prophecy Committee, Senior Play, Prize-speaking Contest 4.

Louise Adeline BabineauHonesty is the best policy.*

Louise came to us from Concord during our Junior year, and has won a warm place in the hearts of all her classmates. The persistent manner in which she attacks her work promises her rapid advancement in the business world. Dramatic Club, French Club 4.

Lorraine Eunice BarbourHer luxuriant hair—it was like the sweep of a swift wing in visions.*

Lorraine, one of our most talented young ladies, is an accomplished pianist, and has assisted in many school affairs. She also excels in the art of the interpretive dance, yet she finds time to be a supporter of our school sports, especially football. Hockey, Basketball 2, Dramatic Club 2, 3, Glee Club 3, Orchestra Pianist 3, 4.

Gordon Gilpin Bennett

A nice unparticular man.

Gordon is one of those lucky boys who enjoy riding to school in a coast to coast bus from Waites Corner. He'd much rather spend his time swimming or skating at Brick Mill than delving into a school book.

George John Bicolis

As quiet as silent clouds drifting across a mellow moon—hiding your real virtues.

George is a modest young man, but nevertheless, we have found out that he is quite a shark in drawing. His spare time is spent at his father's store, juggling sodas and mixing sundaes. One thing we are sure of, he will never be arrested for speeding.

Carl William Boring

For manners are not idle, but the fruit of loyal nature, and of noble mind.

Neat, precise, industrious with a keen business instinct, which has been invaluable to the Red and Gray, Carl is the ideal commercial student personified. Of Scandinavian looks and eyes, he is also a Lothario, striving to please! Red and Gray 2, 3, 4, Junior Prom Committee 3, Assistant Advertising Manager 2, 3, Advertising Manager 4, Treasurer C. M. I. P. A. 3, 4.

Ralph Leo Boyce

Work—Work—Work—my labor never lags.

Ralph is one of our most ambitious members, diligently attending to studies, editing the Hi-Y News, as well as working outside, and occasionally even stepping out. His humor and decided ability along dramatic lines have made him a most welcome fixture of our class. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Relay Team 3, Junior-Senior Reception Committee, Round Table, Class Prophecy, Class Play 4.

May Rosalie Bedard

An open-hearted maiden, true and pure.

May's friendliness and good sense of humor have made her a favorite among her many friends. She isn't very fond of the serious side of school. She enjoys the movies, and patronizes one of the many theaters whenever possible.

Louise Belliveau

A merry girl with a gentle smile.

Louise makes up for her size by her high spirits. Roller skating is tops for her and during the summer months, she can be found at Whalom, skating to her heart's content. Her hobby is knowing the names of as many orchestras as possible.

Eleanor Isabelle Betts

Jolly, peppy, athletic too.

Mr. and Mrs. Betts did a wise thing when they moved from Eastport, Maine, to Fitchburg. There would always have been a gap somewhere if Betsy had not come to fill it. You ought to see her doing the polka in gym class.

Ann Bicoles

Thou art small, but thou shalt grow.

Although Ann brags about her distaste for studies, she is a fair student. We suspect Ann's mother of having placed thimbles in her cheeks when a baby for she has an irresistible pair of dimples. Ann has no definite plans for the future. Hockey, Volleyball, Basketball 2.

Richard Addington BrighamA friend in need is a friend indeed.*

A jack of all trades, if ever there was one. He is always ready to go somewhere or do something at any hour of the morning or night. He is frequently seen in a local poolery. He is a stalwart bachelor. Relay 3.

Edward Albert BrochuCharacter makes its own destiny.*

Edward is one of those persons who say nothing and know all. He is like a clam; you have to spueeze him to make him open. He plays the guitar, and is still undecided whether to become a cowboy troubadour or a Segovia.

John BulcockI deferred not 'til evening what morning should accomplish.*

John is an industrious lad who often delivers groceries for Buck's market. While he is so occupied, his favorite pleasure is baseball which he pursues both as a physical exercise and a conversational food. Baseball, Basketball 2.

Frederick Hardy ButterfieldI will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion.*

Freddy has always been a gentleman of the most cultured type. Aside from keeping his scholastic record high, he finds time to indulge in swimming, tennis, and bowling. Music is one of his greatest accomplishments. Orchestra 2, 3, Junior Prom Committee, Major Blows 3, Tennis, Band 2, 3, 4, Red and Gray Board 3, 4, Dramatic Club 4.

Charlotte Lovina BloodHer pencil drew what e'er soul designed.*

The above quotation is very true of Charlotte, because she is so enthusiastic about drawing. No wonder, for all of us, who have seen the pictures she has made, know she is a real artist. She is one of our very attractive young ladies.

Elsa Irene BohnwagnerShe looks rather quiet but you can't always go by appearances.*

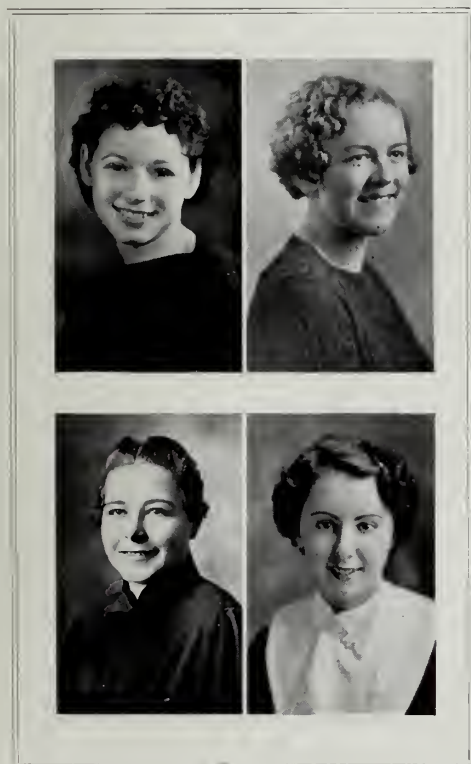

Elsa, who seems rather quiet, certainly does her share of laughing and talking, but only at the right time. She likes sewing, but prefers collecting stamps for her already large collection. Elsa plans to become an efficient nurse after graduation. Hockey, Councilor 2, Dramatic Club, Round Table 4.

Olive Rachel BoudreauSilence has many advantages.*

Olive, one of our part-timers, is one of those rare persons who enjoy practicing the violin. She has played in the school orchestra for four years. When Olive is not busy with her various tasks, she spends the time reading. Junior Prom Committee 3, Orchestra 2, 3, 4.

Viola ButlerThat dimple that thy chin contains has beauty in its round,
That never has been fathomed yet by myriad thoughts profound.*

Viola is a quiet but studious girl. Summer finds her busy swimming and winter, skating. Out of her many interests this year she enjoys her painting in the Free Hand Drawing Class. Dramatic Club 3, 4.

Wallace Winans CairnsTalent is that which is a man's power.*

The drawing pencil and the paint box are the born companions of Wallace. Decorative genius and a true artistic trait are certainly not lacking in him, for he has won several prizes in the Christmas lighting contests of Fitchburg. Glee Club 3, 4.

John Frank CantonAmbition has no rest!*

Johnny's one ambition is to own a fleet of Ford V-8's so he can see the world. During summer vacations he can be found peddling fruit in some New Hampshire town. Being a member of the I match you club, Johnny is always looking for new customers. Assistant Manager, Basketball 3.

William Ralph ClintonWe grant although he had much wit,
he was very shy of using it.*

Bill's propinquity to the black bottles in Whelan's has prompted an ambition for a career as a druggist. Thus far his inherent humor has cropped out only during history class.

Robert Grant ConleyA reasoning self-sufficing thing,
An intellectual all in all.*

Bob is a blond and very exacting young man, striving for perfection in all he undertakes. His ability is confirmed by the fact that he has always been on the honor roll, often special, and that he always dresses well and is a better than average athlete.

Josephine Mary ButtafuocoRather quiet, rather shy,
But a twinkle in her eye.*

Josephine, although short of stature, manages to make herself seen. She is fond of all sports, but dancing heads the list. Wherever Josephine goes, her cheerful smile accompanies her. She easily blends school work and helpfulness around the house.

Elizabeth Marion CarpenterShe speaks, behaves, and acts just as she ought.*

Betty is an outwardly demure young lady whose popularity is evident in her own set. As a good student and an excellent hoopster, she adds her bit to our illustrious class. Betty's ambition is to become a technician in some lab. Basketball, Glee Club, Councillor 2.

Lois Eleanor CarrionHow all her care was but to be fair,
And all her task to be sweet.*

Our constant admiration for a distinct coat of tan and blue-black hair goes to Lois. Last summer Lois was fortunate to visit our southern states and the region of New Mexico. We don't find a special craving for books implanted in her.

Audrey Mildred ChalifouxThy modesty's a candle to thy merit.*

Seen almost as seldom as heard is this tall, brown-eyed maid. Art constitutes her life-blood and being her chosen vocation, anything that requires the touch delicate receives her immediate attention. Junior Color Committee 3, Red and Gray 3, 4.

Francis Joseph Cormier

A man must devote some of his time to other things than study.

Francis is a pleasant, well-met fellow, liked by all who know him. He is a good dancer, and he also likes to play golf, which he enjoys the most of all sports. Francis hasn't, as yet, decided what he intends to do.

Wilfred Louis Cravedi

*Had a tongue at will
And yet was never loud.*

Probably the antithesis of his mother's expectations in scholarly ways but nevertheless a welcome to the class of '37. He spends a great deal of his time out of school in delivering groceries for Cravedi's market which shows that his life is not all for naught.

Roland Anthony Croteau

Men of few words are the best men.

Roland is known throughout the school as an excellent baseball player. His ability has saved many a game for Fitchburg High. He is captain of the team this year. Roland finds life worth while, enjoys it, and helps to make it more pleasant. Baseball 2, 3.

James Joseph Devine

If you would rule the world quietly, you must keep it amused.

Jimmy is the nervous and easily excitable type that, when unwound, is enjoyed by every one. His spare moments are spent setting up at the bowling alleys, and practising ping-pong at the Y. Jimmy intends to take up mechanical work at some trade school. Dramatic Club 2, Glee Club 4.

Doris Yvette Chalifoux

Her pure simplicity is pleasing to all.

Dark-eyed Doris dotes on walks, and whether her thoughts are about her or a thousand miles away, we do not know. Doris has made no definite plans yet as to the future. During her high school days her cousin was her constant chum.

Barbara Winthrop Chastaney

Joy rises in me like a summer's morn.

Bobby is a friend to all. She has won great applause in her portrayals of colored servants. She readily joins all the fun in which her friends indulge. Because of her interest in outside activities, Bobby enjoys cheering for her Alma Mater at Crocker Field. Dramatic Club, Glee Club 3, Reader's Guild 4.

Davida Mary Christian

Vain pleasures I abhor.

It seems that Davida is always on some championship team and justly she may be called the best all around girl athlete of the school. Her summer address is the Pearl Street swimming pool, where she excels as a diver. Volleyball, Basketball 2, 3, Hockey 2, 4.

Barbara Elizabeth Connors

She's a regular girl in every way.

Barbara is perhaps the best example of an all around girl to be found in our class. Enthusiastic about sports, both as a participant and a spectator, she also excels in her studies. For lessons in harmonious living, seek this great exponent of the abundant life. Hockey 2, 4, Dramatic Club, Councillor 3, 4, Basketball, Volleyball 2, 3, 4, Editor of The Boulder, Round Table 4.

Charles Philip DiGloriaSmall but powerful.*

To look at Charlie in a gym suit is like seeing a second Atlas! Many of his brethren have often speculated whether standing before the locker-room mirror produced those mighty muscles. Charles also believes in getting what he wants, so beware, Romeo!

Americo DoriThose who think nobly, are noble.*

Rico, of the curly hair, is a part-timer with a perfect bass. His efficiency is quite evident not only as Miss Dunn's secretary, but also as a Super-Shell salesman near the Car Barn. Perchance if you see his Ford parked on some side road, gas selling is out of the question. Relay Team 3.

Robert Kenneth DouglasI like fun, like everyone.*

Everything stops for tea as far as Whimp is concerned for he is a famed tea-drinker. Even the pestered waitresses at Clover Hill are aware of that. An inspiring band-leader, a second Eddie Duchin, we predict he will carve a niche in the musical Hall of Fame. Band 2, 3, 4, Orchestra 2, 4.

Walter Lawrence DowningNone but himself can be his parallel.*

"Well, look it up," Walter confidently suggests to his opponents after cornering them in his favorite game of Ghost. Thus, as a sedulous scholar, he derives uncommon joy in the pursuit of knowledge either alone or in competition with his rival, Rice. Orchestra 2, 3.

Doris Mary CoppingerThe blush is beautiful, but it is sometimes inconvenient.*

Doris is a wide-awake, spicy bit of femininity, with a long trail of friends in her wake. She leans to leaders, especially band leaders, who also can lead on dance floors. There's never a dull moment with Doris' personality lighting the surroundings. Hockey, Volleyball, Dramatic Club 2, Basketball 4.

Irene Nora CormierHere's a maiden without pretense Blessed with reason and common sense.*

Irene is a miss with whom we like to come in contact, for she is always neat, cheerful, and prompt. She is fond of sports but enjoys dancing most. Irene enjoys working and even stays out of school to work at Grant's during rush seasons. Glee Club 2, French Club 2, 3.

Cecilia Mary CoteTo be merry best becomes you.*

Sis is Ashburnham's contribution to F. H. S. She has been an able assistant to Mr. Dufour and Miss Gifford, and every other week you'd find her studying her lessons. But lessons do not keep her from dancing which she knows how to do very well.

Laura Gertrude CrockerFor e'en tho' vanquished,
She could argue still.*

The above quotation is quite true of Laura, for too often she would find herself in an argument with some teacher. However, she could always hold her own. Reading occupies a major portion of Laura's spare time, hence perhaps the inspiration. Glee Club, Dramatic Club, Senior Class Play 4.

Edward Joseph Dufort

*On with the dance! Let joy be unconfin'd
No sleep till morn when youth and pleasure meet.*

Formerly one of the smallest members of our class, this year saw a great change in Edward as he suddenly grew tall. He was co-manager of the football team; enjoys sports of all kinds and also likes dancing. Football Manager 4.

Hubert Francis Dupray

'Tis much he dares.

Dupray possesses what we may call a radio complex as he spends more time fixing and listening to his radio, than on other affairs. Some day he may offer us entertainment on his own radio. He is a pleasant fellow to know.

Bernard Vincent Erickson

His failings leaned to virtue's side.

Buddy's tastes run toward the extremes of human comprehension; he likes original poetry and even used to write some beautiful poems for a certain Westminster miss. His ambition is to become a chef; and believe it or not, he can bake as well as any girl, if not better. Dramatic Club, Glee Club 4.

Norman Joseph Feingold

Of their own merits modest men are dumb.

Which is precisely true of Norman, who often amazes his classmates with the brilliant remarks that he utters at too infrequent intervals. A true scholar, he will advance far when the time is ripe. Dramatic Club, Debating Club 4.

Roberta Leone Cross

Her quiet nature seemed to be Tuned to each season's harmony.

Roberta, one of our hard-working part-timers, is seen every other week assisting Miss Mattson. She is a fun loving girl, and is always found with a merry group. Roberta also enjoys that ever popular pastime, knitting. Orchestra 3.

Dorothy Catherine Daniels

A comrade blithe and full of glee.

Dot is one of the vivacious femmes of our class. She never seems to be worried about anything, not even homework. It's a real pleasure to have her around because of her pep, humor, and wit.

Dorothy Louise Daulton

With affection beaming in one eye and calculation out of the other.

On the tip of her tongue, Dot has the most affectionate names for her friends. Since she obtained her license, this lass can be seen airing herself in that crisp West Fitchburg atmosphere. By the way Dot, what's that we hear about the good ice cream at Tremblay's? Dramatic Club 2, 3, Junior-Senior Reception 3, Basketball 2, 4.

Philomena Ann DiConza

*She is most fair and there unto
Her life doth rightly harmonize.*

Phil is rather unobtrusive in the classroom, but beneath the surface smoulders the heart of a very merry girl. She flocks around with her own pleasant group of friends, contented and happy. Glee Club 2.

Franklin Bernard FerazzaEarned with the sweat of my brow.*

Franklin seems to be kept constantly on the run, delivering papers and doing other odd jobs, going to school, and doing his homework. Nevertheless, he faces life cheerfully while making the most of his time. Glee Club 2, 3, 4.

Frederick William FiskaaliI dare do all that may become a man.*

Mornings Freddie can be seen working in his father's store, that is, if it can be called work. But if there are any muscular powers demanded, Freddie satisfies, having trained many years at Stodge Meadow, Ashburnham, by paddling canoes and swimming.

Stanley William FrancekOften ornatenessGoes without greatnessOften felicityComes of simplicity.*

Stan has the unexcelled honor of being the quietest fellow in school! This honor, however, is no discredit to him; and because he has no other press-agent, we take the opportunity of introducing him as a good student and a loyal friend.

Emmett John FritzEvery artist was first an amateur.*

Emmett's pen and ink sketches which have adorned the Red and Gray and the Y. M. C. A. bulletin boards have earned for him the title of our foremost cartoonist and artist. His headquarters which are naturally the Y have trained him as a first-rate table-tennis and basketball player. Tennis Team, won Red and Gray Poster 2, Basketball 2, 3, Class Color Committee 3.

Katherine Pauline DiSalvoA gentle maid with quiet, modest ways.*

Katherine ranks as one of the smallest members of our class, and she is generally seen walking about school in an unoccupied manner. Although she does not take part in many school sports, she is fond of skiing and hiking.

Helen Joan DovedensSome like work, some like play,
I'm for both.*

Helen is one of our part-timers who is full of fun and very talkative. If there's any talking in Mr. Howard's class either the third or fifth period, it is dear little Helen, talking on the subject of cars or movies that she has attended. Her favorite diversion is knitting and driving. Glee Club 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Gloria DownsWhat my heart thinketh, my tongue speaketh.*

Music seems to be Gloria's weakness, for, during the summer, when the high school musical organizations cease functioning, she pursues her interests by attending the different local band concerts. We wonder if those band concerts hold other interests than musical. Basketball 2, 3, Dramatic Club, Orchestra 2, 3, 4.

Lucille Lydia DuvalThe better known, the greater is her worth appreciated.*

Lucille belongs to the gang that comes from Cleghorn. Her favorite sport is skating and many a winter's moonlight evening she may be seen skimming over the glassy surface of some pond. After graduation Lucille hopes to enter the business world. Volleyball 2.

Sam GloriantFor they can conquer who believe they can.*

Blond, brawny, bashful Sam is a regular cowboy picture fan! Perhaps he imagines himself the hero rescuing some fair damsel from the Indians. At any rate, his parallel pleasure is the study of history.

Theodore Joseph GodekHere he comes—there he goes.*

Ted is a rather independent character who associates with his own particular circle of friends. The ease and precision with which he wields a hockey stick on the ice should make him a welcome addition to some big league hockey team. Football 2, 3, Relay Team 3, Dramatic Club 3, 4.

Robert Ovila GodinYet had his aspect nothing of severe,
But such a face as promised him sincere.*

Godin is one of our modest chaps who, although serious, certainly knows how to laugh and joke according to his friends, who say he is a real pal. His seriousness and the diligence he has shown in school are bound to carry him far in his future work.

Arthur Burton GoochTired nature's sweet restorer, balmy sleep.*

Arthur is a ping-pong champ at the Y and thence wend his footsteps nightly. Although quite certain that overstudy is not the cause, we have often wondered why Arthur loves to sleep so much. Mayhap he has pleasant dreams.

Constance May EmersonShe is all my fancy paints her.*

Connie is endowed with that which is the envy of many girls and the ideal of many men—red hair. She has no temper, however, but is quite calm. This probably accounts for her skill as one of talented acrobatic girls of Turner Hall. Volleyball, Hockey 2, Basketball 2, 3, 4.

Aune Ida ErkkilaHonest fame awaits the truly good.*

Aune is one of our hard-working girls in the commercial course. Her quiet manner makes her rather inconspicuous in school as well as outside.

Helen Vieno ErkkilaToday, whatever may annoy,
The word for me is Joy, just simple Joy.*

A pleasing voice and a merry laugh which can often be heard resounding through the corridors before class can belong to none other than Tish. Helen's sunny attitude toward life has brought her many friends; her initiative, many tasks. Basketball, Pinafore 2, Class Motto Committee, Belle of Barcelona 3, Hockey, Dramatic Club 2, 4, Debating Club, Red and Gray 3, 4, Glee Club 2, 3, 4, Councillor 4.

Rita Ethel FergensonStill waters run deep.*

Rita has often been seen driving to school in a shining automobile, with Jean doing the back seat driving. But although Rita is a skillful driver, she often stalled in the middle of a street. She will seek her higher education at the University of Pennsylvania. Basketball 2, Dramatic Club 2, 3, Thanksgiving Dance Committee 4.

Eino Edward Gronroos

His study is not great but continual.

Never judge a book by the cover. Applying this to humans, we'll take Eino for an example. Very quiet in external appearance, but quite a teaser of the girls, especially in United States History class. Despite this, we are sure he will make good.

Sammy Guastello

I will be lord over myself.

Sam is an intelligent boy when so inclined but during recitations he is not generally so inclined. Still he is of the serious type and may some day astound the world with latent thoughts now in the making. Relay Team 3.

Arthur Henry Gustafson

For life is ended when honor ends.

Gus has the honor of being one of our outstanding athletes who conscientiously trains himself by playing ferryman or canoeman to the feminine populace of Stodge Meadow, Ashburnham, during the summer. Swimming and horse-shoes are also two sports of which he is master. Basketball, Football 2, 3, Councillor 4.

Tyygo Haimila

Quietness is best.

Outside the school doors Tyygo is transformed into a lively youth. Take a trip to West Fitchburg during skating season and see Tyygo give the hockey stick a mean swing. He evidently doesn't believe in giving his books a ride home too often.

Shirley Fickett

*And her modest answer and graceful air
Show her wise and good as she is fair.*

Pleasingly plump, Shirley should be a second Kate Smith with her golden voice. She surely should get to the top as she does with her high notes. And have you ever heard her whistle? Keep it up Shirley, you're doing fine. Glee Club 3,4, Band 4.

Constance Margaret Fitzgerald

Footloose and fancy free.

Connie is carefree and without a worry in her head. We have observed that although she isn't especially interested in school books, she manages to get along somehow with the rest of them. Outside of school, Connie's chief amusement is dancing.

Ruth Flaum

With volleys of eternal babble.

You would hardly know that Ruthie had a voice in school, but outside its walls she can compete with the best known chatterers. A great part of her time is spent returning or procuring library books and the rest in the movies. Glee Club 3, Reader's Guild 4.

Rosamond Flint

Tall, straight, slender with all the graces blest.

In Rorrie, one of our most attractive seniors, we find a pleasant nature, an ideal basketball center, and an excellent coach, evidenced by the results of her team. In true Flint tradition, she takes to tennis and to driving a car with ease. Basketball, Glee Club, Pinafore 2, Dramatic Club, Class Dues Committee 3, 4, Thanks-giving Dance Committee 4.

Eino Oscar HakalaGayly the troubadour touched his guitar.*

Would you like to wake up some night to find someone strumming beneath your window? Anything like that is likely if Eino is around with his guitar and Ray with a banjo. Eino's hobby is building airplanes. Some day he may become a pilot—who knows? Orchestra 2, 3, 4.

Emerson Morton HallThe heart to conceive, the understanding to direct, and the hand to execute.*

Emerson is the proud possessor of an imposing array of church attendance pins and sets an example that all should follow. He enjoys fellowship with young people, discusses the problems of the day with them and is a welcome addition to any group. Dramatic Club 3, 4, Glee Club 4.

Bud's good looks and geniality have made him many friends, especially among the fairer sex. Gypsy-like he comes and goes, never staying in one school very long, although F. H. S. has claimed him most. But wherever he chances, a trail of broken hearts remains—so take care, fair maids. Relay Team 3.

David Malcolm HarknessOn him in his high endeavor,
The light of praise shall shine forever.*

Dave, both physically and mentally, is one of our bigger boys. He has successfully combined leadership in sports and studies, having received highest honors in both. His desire to serve humanity has made medicine his ultimate goal. Junior-Senior Reception Committee 3, Round Table, Councillor, Write-up Committee 4, Football 2, 3, 4.

Julia Louise ForbesAmong good things, I prove and find
The quiet life doth most abound.*

Behind that serene smile lurks a burning desire to become a famous singer. Julia intends to take lessons after graduating and build a career for herself. With her ambition and way of doing thoroughly every undertaking, we are sure she will succeed. Glee Club 3, 4.

Margaret Louise FossA lovely girl to meet and know*

Here comes Peggy from West Fitchburg. Always on the dot, she has a mighty fine sense of humor. Tomboyish in sports but feminine when the lights grow dim. Peggy plans to follow in the footsteps of her sisters.

Anna Catherine FritzNothing seems to disturb the even tenor of her ways.*

Anna is a bicycle enthusiast and on fine spring mornings may be seen energetically pedalling in the environs of Fitchburg. Perhaps the fresh air and sunshine which she gets on these trips account for her wavy hair and clear brown eyes. French Club. 3.

Eleanor GayBe virtuous and you'll be happy.*

Eleanor is an industrious student with fingers most extraordinary in that they are forever busy. Ambition shows itself in every phrase of her activity. She works outside as well as in school.

Walter Joseph Haspod

It is a hard thing to contend with a conqueror.

Walter is a diligent member of our class of whom we never hear much but he is always around. He is very interested in sports and follows all of them closely. Not an excellent scholar, he always manages to get by. Dramatic Club, Glee Club 4.

William James Hawthorne

Let us be known by our deeds.

Wild Bill is an accomplished athlete, very easy going and never angry. He showed his prowess as a football player this fall by filling the gap in the guard position so well that he earned himself the distinction of being one of the best guards to attend Fitchburg High School. Football 4.

Arvid Waldemar Heisson

An easy-minded soul, and always was.

Arvid is more active in outside clubs than he is in school. One can usually find him in the Reipas gym hall shooting baskets. He is still somewhat surprised at the size of New York and his favorite haunt there is the Empire State Building. Tennis 2, Track 4.

George Albert Henstridge

He was not merely a chip off the old block, but the old block itself.

Red concentrates his energies on two tracks: one which, as he is a good sprinter, will lead to Worcester Trade, and the other, a well beaten track, which leads to the home of a red-haired senior, a Westminster damsel. Relay Team 3, Councillor 4, Band 2, 3, 4.

Emmajane Girouard

*A creature not too bright or good
For human nature's daily food.*

Short and sweet, and with a decided alto voice, Emma flits around school like a gay bird chattering to its mates. Our only regret is that there aren't more cheerful cherubs like Emmajane. Dramatic Club 2, Glee Club 2, 3, 4.

Vivian Gorts

Her sunny temper gilds the edge of life's blackest cloud.

This charming, mannerly girl, answering to the name of Vivian, is one of our model students. Not only is she scholastically inclined, but she craves the outdoor life of a camp where boating and swimming help to mould her well-rounded character. Basketball, Dramatic Club 2, 3, Junior-Senior Reception Committee, Class Ring Committee 3.

Ida Green

I am not only witty myself but the cause that it is in other men.

Ida is a sparkling wit and never is there a dull moment in the classes graced by her presence. Judging by her regular attendance at the Fellowship dances, she must be an ardent worshipper of Terpsichore. Dramatic Club 2, 3, Junior-Senior Reception Committee 3, Glee Club 3, 4.

Helen Elizabeth Grubb

The world belongs to the energetic.

Helen truly enjoys living in the country because, in her case, it does not handicap her going out nights. Her reputation as an excellent horse-woman is wide-spread, even though she has taken much punishment in the form of bruises and breaks. Hockey, Basketball 2, Class Color Committee, Open Meeting 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Robert Hugh HoggGood humor is the health of the soul.*

The meekest voice in the classroom is the honor bestowed upon Hogg. Luckily the teachers have never heard him out of school, for they would be shocked by his changed voice and manner. Not an over-studious boy, his greatest asset is his quick wit. Glee Club 4, Band 2, 3, 4.

Victor LeRoy HopkinsonThe character of the man is known from his conversation.*

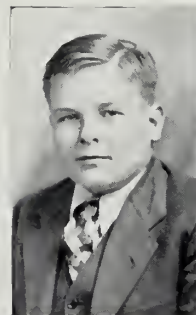

In a classroom, Vic is a very serious minded young man with his cranium crammed with knowledge. Outside, his ability is shown more in wisecracking. He is an ardent follower of the Hi-Y and conventions. Tennis is the sport in which he excels. Orchestra 2, 3, Band 2, 3, 4.

Aarne Jacob JohnsonAn honest man, close button'd to the chin Broadcloth without, and a warm heart within.*

Aarne makes an efficient secretary; for not only is he a special honor student but he also possesses a business mind. A studious lad, he spends most of his time reading. Although he appears reserved, we know he is jolly and a good sport. Business Manager of Boulder 4.

Edwin Waldemar JohnsonGee, but I'm a busy man.*

Eddie, and a good job he does, is one of the co-managers of our successful basketball team. It seems as if his home is the gym for he is almost a permanent fixture of the place. Eddie's interest in girls is slight. Relay Team 3, Co-Manager of Football Team 4.

Gertrude Mary HancockI am no orator as Brutus, I only talk right on.*

Gertrude is usually chattering away for dear life, and if the proverb be true that a woman's tongue is her weapon, Gert is well armed and can always defend herself. She seldom takes many books home, but perhaps she doesn't need to. Hockey 2, Volleyball 3.

Doris Irene HanniganMusic is the universal language of mankind.*

First a titter; then a giggle. Who is it? It must be Doris for she is blushing so. Doris is a member of the High School Orchestra and has played many solos on her violin. May she fiddle her way to success. Ticket Committee for Open Meeting 3, Orchestra, Dramatic Club, French Club 2, 3, 4, Round Table 4.

Lois HardyWhat winning graces, what majestic mien, She moves a goddess and she looks a queen.*

Lois stands out in our class because of her regal height, fine voice, and gifted art of conversing with teachers before an impending recitation. As a leader or a chairman, Lois excels for she has the secret of organizing and producing results. Class Play Ticket Committee 2, 3, Junior-Senior Reception Committee, Belle of Barcelona 3, Glee Club 3, 4, Class Dues Committee 4, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Would that all could as cheerfully and promptly take to work and play as Dot, who yet never usurps the other's time. Bicycling figures prominently in her play hours as do swimming and hiking. Hockey 2, Glee Club, Dramatic Club 2, 3.

Ralph Lucien Johnson

This minute person occupies one of the more quiet seats of our class. His participation in school activities can rightly be said to match his size. We wonder if Ralph would ever have a nervous breakdown from studying?

Waino Matti Johnson

Nothing is more useful than silence.

His quiet manner about school is something to be looked into, for his sudden change of manner outside is miraculous to behold. He can always be seen carrying books home from school, but he can also be seen every night near the High Street Spa, so draw your own conclusions.

Charles Hober Jones, Jr.

*Never over serious, not too frivolous,
But a rare good fellow.*

Charlie is a calm fellow with set ways, but of greater depth than is always evident. He cleverly combines studies with sports, in fact, the football team couldn't get along without him. As he is a marvelous swimmer, who knows but what he may replace Weismuller as "Tarzan" in the movies some day. Junior-Senior Reception Committee 3, Football 4.

Cutler Jones

He adorned whatever subject he either spoke or wrote upon with the most splendid eloquence.

Cutler's hobby is fish. Not only does he enjoy fishing, but he has a large collection of rare tropical fish and much of his spare time is spent in the numerous fish stores of Boston. He is one of our outstanding scholars and edits the Red and Gray. Junior-Senior Reception Committee 3, Red and Gray 3, 4, Write-up Committee, Round Table 4.

Freda Louise Hawkins

By knowledge we do learn ourselves to know.

Although Freda, at present, lives in a city, she is underneath a farm-bred girl. So enthused is she about her future vocation, nursing, that she spends her spare time working in order to make her goal possible. Strength of mind and body insure her success. Hockey, Basketball, Volleyball 2, Glee Club 3, 4.

Virginia Hayes

As merry as the day is long.

Ginger is the scout of scouts, with her sparkling eyes, flawless complexion, animated smile, and dresses as neatly as the proverbial pin. She adores bicycling, is enthusiastic about hiking, and in her scout work is right up to the mark. She justly deserves her Golden Eaglet Award. Junior-Senior Reception Committee, French Club 3, Basketball, Dramatic Club 3, 4, Hockey 2, 3, 4, Glee Club 4.

Onerva Elizabeth Heikkinen

*You by the help of time and time
Can make that song which was but rhyme.*

Onerva likes to sing and delights her listeners with her beautiful soprano voice. She has a large collection of swimming medals won for excellence in this sport. After graduation she plans to take up a course in physical training.

Jean Henderson

A quiet manner hides the mischief in her eyes.

Swish—another two points to her credit! Jean, with her eagle-like eyes, is one of our most accomplished hoopsters. During basketball season she can be found at Guild Hall improving her shots and floor work. Jean is also known for her sincerity and frankness. Hockey 2, 4, Volleyball, Dramatic Club 2, 4, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Round Table, Write-up Committee 4.

Lawrence Frank JoslinSo exceedingly tall and strong.*

Lawrence is very ambitious and spends all his time, and over-time, delivering soft drinks. The carbonated beverage and ice cream manufacturer finds him an excellent customer, for he continually relieves his insatiable thirst by drinking frappes. His greatest worry is his size twelve shoes.

Roy Arthur JuusolaFortune favors the brave.*

Roy's steadfastness of character has always led him straight to his goal; in sports to become the captain of the champion Trojan basketball team, and also to maintain his marks among the best. Relay Team, Class Ring Committee 3.

Spiros William KandianisWherever you look, wherever you go;
A better sport does not grow.*

Spitto, whose election as basketball captain has proved his capability as a leader as well as an athlete, bears a name which is the delight of his friends and fans. A good sport in every sense of the word describes the great Spitto. Relay Team 3, Basketball 3, 4, Football 4.

Eino William KangasQuiet minds are generally the most happy.*

This blond chap has an inclination toward shyness in school. When you see a black limousine with yellow wheels whizz by, you can be sure Eino is one of its occupants. He indulges in sports and riding around with a sextet of chaps in his spare moments.

Marguerite Frances HerrickCalmness is a great advantage.*

This unobtrusive brunette usually has something concealed up her sleeve, whether it be a joke or a ludicrous trick to spring on some one. Marguerite's favorite spot is the roller skating rink at Whalom which she patronizes even three times weekly. In the winter she turns to skating. Hockey 2, Basketball 2, 4, Dramatic Club 4.

Taimi Ellen HillSoftly speak and sweetly smile.*

Perhaps that's what brings the other sex flocking. Maybe it's her quiet dignity, her good humor, or her love for all sports. After debating for some time over her future, Taimi has finally decided to become a beauty practitioner. Hockey, Dramatic Club 3, Reader's Guild 4.

Olga HoltzStudious to please, yet not ashamed to fail.*

Wouldn't Olga make an able stenographic assistant to some business concern! Her intentions are just that. Although piano-playing and roller-skating are her preferred pastimes, it is a secret that she is often seen, clad in overalls, playing ball near Pearl Street. Glee Club 2.

Anita HusariDainty and sweet, a maiden petite.*

Journalism is the road which Anita plans to travel, with a bent to writing novels. Her originality will surely make her novels as interesting as herself. What Anita does with her spare moments is a secret, but—she writes bits of poetry. Debating Club 2, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Red and Gray 3, 4, Round Table 4.

Kazar KazanjianSuccess by industry and labor.*

Shoe-shine boy, working hard all day. Oh, no, not at his lessons. School work never bothered Kazar and it's promising that it won't after June either. So keep on shining, shoe-shine boy. Football 2, Glee Club 4.

Howard Raymond LaceyLaughing is the sensation of feeling good all over and showing it principally in one spot.*

Quite frequently we labored under the delusion that a horse was near, but to our continual surprise it was merely Howard, enjoying himself. As the school's tennis champ, this popular chap is no laughing matter. His sax is his gateway to the girls and what a gateway! Basketball 2, 3, Tennis, Band, Dramatic Club, Open Meeting 2, 3, 4, Major Blows, Junior-Senior Reception Committee, Junior-Senior Relay, Councillor 3, Write-up Committee, Captivators 4.

Samuel Simon LaitilaHe is a man of his own mind.*

One of Miss Peabody's honored few, Sammy qualifies as an excellent weatherman for our school productions, by producing wind and rain realistic enough for professionals. His diligence as a worker is marked both as a student and an employee of Barney Rosen's.

Harold Alden Lamb

Harold left school December 21, 1936.

Elsie Joan IannuzziSilence is golden.*

Elsie is a very quiet girl who says very little in school, but I advise you not to get her talking. Coming from the residential part of Fitchburg, Elsie can be found doing her shopping down on Water Street. Glee Club 4.

Alberta Lillian IlsleyThe mildest manners and the gentlest heart.*

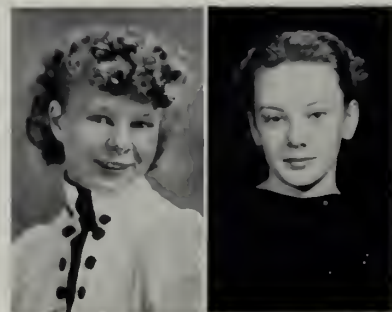

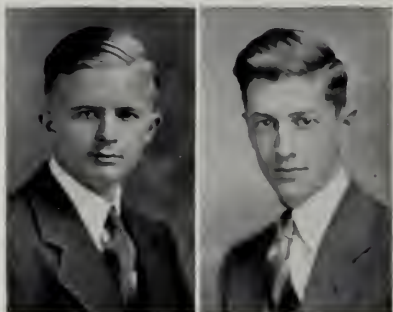

Alberta is as refreshing as the breezes which blow from her native New Hampshire. She is one miss who has not succumbed to the short-hair fashion which fact is praiseworthy. Dramatic Club 2, 4, French Club, Round Table 4.

Rauha Eliida JaaskelainenIt is becoming of thee to smile.*

Ray is one of our ambitious out-of-town girls. She likes swing-time in dancing, but when it comes to dresses she draws the line. Rauha makes her own clothing, and suits herself in fine taste and style. Any work which will bring results will be Rauha's ambition. Class Flag Sewing Committee 3, Glee Club 4, Reader's Guild 4.

Alice Aileen JohnsonTrue merit is like a river, the deeper it is the less noise it makes.*

Many have pierced the wall to the kingdom of Alice's heart to secure her true friendship. In spite of her misfortune to her health Alice has managed to keep that bright smile and the twinkle in her eyes.

Joseph Aubert LamontagneA youth sincere and true.*

Joe is one who does not like crowds and finds his own company the best. His hobbies are collecting stamps and building model airplanes but these do not keep him from being an able athlete and musician. Relay Team, Orchestra 3, 4.

Raymond Joseph LamotheMusic hath its charms.*

Ray is tops when it comes to horse-shoe pitching, for he is a champion. He also goes to town by strumming his ol' banjo and some day, maybe, he will be soaring high above us in the clouds.

Ernest Leo LegrosWas ever man so little grieved as I.*

A never absent smile characterizes Leo, the popular president of the renowned Guy Fontgalland Drum Corps. He also has an epicurean liking for licorice which he invariably carries in his pocket.

Herbert Eugene Levoy, Jr.I am very fond of the company of ladies.*

Jiggs is the lucky lad who owns that model A red Ford which travels to and from school full of happy fellows. He, being mechanically inclined, is very fortunate in having a fully-equipped work shop where he receives plenty of practice on his Ford. Squad B Football 3.

Margaret Veronica KazanjianConfidence begets confidence.*

Margaret's lovable personality has won her many friends during her school years. She has become the confidant of her classmates. Margaret is also a good housekeeper, although she hopes to become an efficient stenographer. Hockey 2, Basketball 2, 3, Glee Club 4.

Barbara Louise KelleyA good disposition that gold cannot buy.*

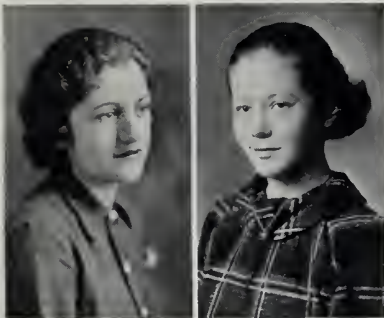

Under that apparently demure and serene exterior of Barb is hidden a mischievous and fun loving spirit. She is quite interested in military maneuvers and can often be found scanning the Army mail from Panama. Basketball, Dramatic Club 4.

Janet KingLife is jest and all things show it;
I thought it once and now I know it.*

One of those ever-wagging tongues has she and a truly unmistakable laugh. Janet also heeds the call of the physical in that she participates in tennis and bicycling, and even exercises her finger tips by aiding Miss Ames, the dressmaker, mornings. Dramatic Club 2, 3, Class Banner Committee 3.

Ellen Katherine KoittilaBusiness is the salt of life.*

Tall and slender, Ellen has found her way into many sister students' hearts. She has proved to be a worthy assistant in the Superintendent's office. Sports and literature take up her leisure time while she is planning for a business career.

Edgar Dana Lord

Ruddy his lips, and fresh and fair his hue.

Edgar keeps the confectionery business in a flourishing state, for he is never seen without candy in his possession. This makes him much sought after by a certain group of young ladies. Perhaps it is to candy-eating that Edgar owes his rosy cheeks and curly hair.

Roger Edward Lord

He speaks sense.

With the meticulous qualities which Roger has inherited, he will undoubtedly follow his father's footsteps and become head bookkeeper in some large concern in the future. At least that is his goal at present. Councillor 2.

Horace John Luchford

As honey attracts bees so he attracts friends.

Anyone, who comes in contact with Leggie's cheery voice and sincere manners, cannot help but like him. His friends are both numerous and loyal. The clinking behind his house summer nights, can be attributed to this future horse-shoe champ. Track 2, 4, Football 2, 3, 4, Junior Prom Committee 3, Junior Relay 3, 4.

Donald Francis MacLean

It is not birth nor rank nor state

But get up—and get—that makes men great.

Ossie is our star athlete, our finest example of good sportsmanship, and a grand fellow whom we are proud to have in our class. This southpaw hurler, besides his athletic activities, finds time to attend school daily and occasionally visit a damsel with a poetic Tennysonian name. Baseball 3, Football, Basketball 2, 3, 4.

Paraskevyy Fostine Kopsiaftis

A sweet attractive kind of grace.

Paraskevyy is one of our part-timers this year. She is a quiet, studious girl who takes her work seriously and her play with enjoyment. Basketball, her favorite sport, she plays with a will and with good sportsmanship. Her hobby is collecting dog pins. Basketball, Volleyball 2, 3, Hockey 2, 3, 4.

Mildred Edna Koski

For she is jes' the quiet kind

Whose nature never varies.

Mildred, part-timer in the office, is very retiring and shy, even among her friends. Although Mildred's name appears on the special honor roll, she does not neglect her favorite sport, skiing, or her hobby, collecting pictures. Mildred's ambition is to become a stenographer.

Anna Krysil

A girl so sweet and fair,

With a happy smile and a pleasant air.

Blue-eyed Annabelle is a part-timer for Miss Mattson and also an honor roll student. Anna likes all sports, and as is typical of a fun-loving girl, she likes to dance. One of her greatest ambitions is to do some extensive traveling—maybe across the ocean. Basketball, Volleyball 2, 3.

Doris Irene Lafleur

Friends she has many.

Foes, has she any?

Out of her vast circle of friends Doris has picked Mac and Sunshine to form her triumvirate. The instigator of many happy times for those three, she has made many a person glance with envy at her apparent friendliness with teachers. Basketball, Hockey 2, Volleyball 2, 3, Glee Club 3, 4, Dramatic Club 4

Jasper ManooshianSpeech is great; but silence is greater.*

Jasper is one of the silent members of the class. He is a very studious young man and his following is large when his homework is done. Daily he entertains his own group with his dry wit and his remarks on his stamp collection. Glee Club 3, 4.

Roy Gorton MansurYoung fellows will be young fellows.*

Roy's curls are quite the thing at F. H. S. It seems that Roy has a strong dislike for girls but not for everything. He just craves lots of wholesome food and maybe that's why he was so good a fullback on that great Westminster football team.

Antonio Emilio MarranzinoNever say die!*

Tony's main objective in life is to carry out the work started by Jessie Owens, as he has plenty of speed. When he starts to do anything he gets what he's after. Relay Team 3, 4, Track 4.

Alfred Augustus MarshallLittle it matters what the size
His true good worth we realize.*

Al, a fun-loving member of our class, was a mainstay at the Y dances and also participated in Christ Church socials. He is a cold weather enthusiast, for his favorite sport is that of goalie in the hazardous game of hockey. Relay Team 3, Dramatic Club 4.

Sirkka Stiina LappalaHigh in stature, High in talent.*

Sirkka, a part-timer, enjoys her work in the school department. She likes to spend her spare moments sewing, especially for herself, and likes to watch football games. Dancing is okay with Sirkka, too, if there are any six footers available.

Mae Rita LavoieShe has a beauty of her own.*

Mae has auburn hair, but without the temper that is generally said to accompany her type. In fact, she is always gay, and is a jolly member of the triumvirate which plays so many pranks around Room 102 each lunch period. Hockey 2, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Glee Club 3, 4, Reader's Guild, Senior Class Play 4.

Alberta Marie Louise LegerA laugh is worth a hundred groans in any market.*

Alberta is a fair maiden with brown, naturally curly locks that cause many green looks of envy. She is jolly and always has a broad smile for everyone. Studying is not very important to Alberta who prefers to spend her time taking part in sports. Basketball 2, French Club 3, Dramatic Club 4.

Alice Edith LegereThose who are faithful, find happiness.*

Alice, with her host of pastimes, does not find life dull. She travels a great deal and hopes to visit France some day. Collecting souvenirs from all the new places, including restaurants, she visits is her hobby. Alice intends to be a bookkeeper upon graduation. Basketball 2, Glee Club 4.

Fred Tom MatthewsAn all around good fellow.*

Although Freddy has moved from West Fitchburg to another part of the city, he is often seen back in the west where he goes skating and swimming at Brick Mill Pond. Freddy may usually be found at the Y. M. C. A. on Saturday nights.

Tauno William MattsonVirtue alone is true nobility.*

Tauno's swift pair of legs is a valuable asset to our relay team. Although few realize it because of his unostentatious manner, he has many talents. One of these is his marked ability to name any orchestra on the radio merely by hearing it play once.

Toivo Arthur Mattson

*And then he danced—
Not like a ballet master
—but like a gentleman.*

Toko, as he is called by his friends, spends most of his spare time working as a store-helper. No matter how busy the day, Toivo will not miss a dance. He can always be found stepping over some dance floor every Saturday night. Relay Team 3.

George Henry McCueSmiling always, with a never-failing serenity of countenance.*

This merry, mirthful wearer of an eternal smile owns a disposition which should be the envy of the world. George follows class doings with interest and even enjoys the necessary part of school attendance, proving that he should be welcomed by Framingham Normal next fall as a prospective student. Councillor 2, Relay Team 3.

Philomena Ann LeoWe're born to be happy, all of us.*

Phil, although owning the famous name of Leo is not sports-minded. Rather, her tastes run to the indoor sport of dancing and she is one of its most enthusiastic devotees. Her merry personality has won her many friends of both sexes.

Helen Margaret LipniskasGolden hair like sunlight streaming.*

Helen, one of our fair, blue-eyed maidens, hailing from the western wilds of Fitchburg, causes no great commotion about school. Her great interest is hairdressing which she plans to take up as a life work.

Henrietta Jeanette LizotteLet lessons slide by, what care I?*

Jeanette is an ardent basketball player and for the last three years played on the girl's basketball team and made a good guard. We guess that she would infinitely prefer to go swimming or skating, according to the season, than to dig away at her studies. Hockey 2, 3, Volleyball 3, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club 4.

Evelyn Myrtle LockwoodFor not to live at ease is not to live.*

Evelyn's buoyant spirits seem to find expression in song. for wherever she goes, she hums—in corridor or classroom. Caught off-key frequently, she nevertheless undaunted begins anew much to the sorrow of those about. Glee Club 3, 4.

Edward Joseph McMurray

*For if I laugh at mortal things
'Tis that I may not weep.*

Red's face ever wreathed in smiles has found a permanent place in the memories of his fellow students. Needless to say, he is Miss Haskin's pet, liking her so much that he spends many a day talking with her in the assembly hall. Dramatic Club 4.

Wayland Sverre Meyer

Let us enjoy pleasure while we can.

Here is a south side lad who goes for noise in a big way. During school hours he likes bombs, and makes a speciality of planting them in cars, especially old ones belonging to math teachers. He is an ardent nimrod.

Demetrius Papaioannou Michaelides

There is no knowledge which is not valuable.

Demetrius came to us at the beginning of our Senior year direct from Greece with his original accent. His pleasing personality helped him win a great many friends. He certainly shows an ambition for studies, and proved it by making the honor roll.

Themistoclis Papaioannou Michaelides

Reading maketh a full man, conference a ready man, and writing an exact man.

Themistoclis joined our Senior Class with his brother Jim, who also is his twin. His personal qualities differ from those of his other half. We have all found him a perfect gentleman, and always willing to help. He does well in his studies and plans to continue his educational work in a higher institution of learning.

Mary Caroline Longerie

I would rather excel others in knowledge than in power.

Mary is an industrious student and aside from her school work, keeps the keys of the typewriter clicking in the principal's office. Without doubt, Mary will make a dependable secretary some day. Ever see Mary's little lamb—Ellen?

Mary Elizabeth Loddy

*So unaffected, so composed a mind;
So firm, so soft, so strong, yet so refined.*

Mary possesses a personality like that of her favorite recreation, mountain climbing. A fine mind coupled with a sterling character and refreshing friendliness have acted as magnets in drawing admiring friends. In addition to her chic exterior, she is quite domestic too. Chairman of Class Motto Committee 3, Glee Club, Class Prophecy Committee, Write-up Committee 4, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Helvi Lonnqvist

She smiled and shadows departed.

Helvi is a bustling bit of femininity who is happy serving others—either bewildered typing students, or at home where she is a highly expert domestic person. Her obvious unselfishness is indeed a rarity.

Yvette Aurelie Lucier

*Friends she has many,
Foes, has she any?*

Yvette's buoyant good spirit is always with us; her shining personality among us. Her garb is trim and her coiffure always looks as if it had been arranged by Charles of the Ritz. Junior-Senior Reception Committee 3, French Club, Glee Club 3, 4, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

William Robert MillerAn honest man's the noblest work of God.*

Bill is one of those would-be musicians whose art was crowded out by football. He is studious, receives good marks, and is a pleasant companion. German seems to be his favorite subject. What's the reason! Glee Club 2, Band 3, Track 2, 4, Football, Relay 3, 4.

Harry George MooradianAlways be faithful.*

A loyal friend is what all mankind cherishes. Harry is always dependable and honest; always thrifty and thoughtful of others. Many students should try to gain these qualities which can be found in Abbott's best friend.

Willis Spencer MoreyOh, speak in accents sweet and tender.*

Spence's family migrated from the wilds of Pennsylvania during our Junior year, bringing with them a lad of magnetic personality and a delicious accent, quite adequate in securing him a pardon from the sternest of teachers or friends. Lucky lad!

Thomas Francis MorrillyA man he seems of cheerful yesterdays and confident tomorrows.*

Thomas' distinguishing trait is an educated thumb which his hobby of visiting different cities employs. Civil service is the goal which he is eyeing quite seriously although few things as yet tend to make him serious.

Harriett Isabel MacMullenAs frank as rain or cherry blossoms.*

Harriett was born to lead people either to their seats at football and basketball games or, in her persuasive way, to different opinions. Mayhap, in her commercial future, she will be a buyer for some large concern—at least she enjoys window-shopping now. Basketball 2, Glee Club 3.

Eleanor Frances MansfieldFashioned so slenderly
Young and so fair.*

Eleanor, they say, is a quiet girl but can she talk! No need to say about what, for anyone who knows her has heard her lengthy and enthusiastic soliloquies on Bing Crosby, her favorite for a long time. Girls will be girls! Glee Club 3, 4.

Lillian Mary MarabelloHer modest looks
Sweet as a primrose peeps.*

Friendly, good-natured, but very shy, is the smallest girl in our class. Little does Lillian say unless requested or necessity demands it. Contentedly she goes on her way, making friends, and finding her place among us.

Dot is a loyal member of the Girl Scouts and faithfully attends the meetings of the C. Y. C. On many a cold morning one may see her enjoying a brisk game of tennis with one of her admirers. We like her for her sincerity and simplicity. Basketball, Hockey 2, French Club, Junior Prom Committee 3, Glee Club, Dramatic Club 3, 4.

Harold Francis MorrisWhere he is, melancholy cannot stay.*

To look at him, who would suspect that this innocent fellow could throw a whole classroom into an uproar! Yet his wit and pranks afforded unmeasurable pleasure throughout the year. His store of poetry which he recites to anyone who will listen, is inexhaustible. Glee Club, Dramatic Club 3, 4, Class Prophecy 4.

Frank John MorylVariety is the spice of life.*

Frank's golden goal is to become a race track owner. Not merely an owner, but a driver, varying at will with models as he never has the same car. Thus Frank is like little Audrey—he laughs and laughs and laughs because he knows what happens to the cars. Glee Club 4.

Edward Alfred MuirNot too serious, not too gay,
A good fellow in every way.*

Edward is an unassuming lad who comes to us from West Fitchburg. Although he does not take an active part in school sports, he shows an interest in many outdoor sports, especially in baseball. He is a good-natured fellow and is always making friends. Relay Team 3.

Everett Wesley MurchieHe needs no verse to fame him
His merit true doth name him.*

Arriving from out of town to enter the Class of '37 he immediately found his way into the hearts of his classmates by his ever present jocundity. Among his major amusements are the dramatic art and participation in sporting events in that thriving metropolis, West Fitchburg. French Club 3.

Catherine Mary MarottaWith countenance demure and modest grace.*

Sagaciously and with evident enjoyment, Catherine observes with quiet eye, but seldom takes part in any unorthodox school pranks; hence she has time to be a good student and unselfishly help other less fortunate tykes with homework and explanations of complicated math problems. Basketball, Hockey 2.

Marion Margaret McDaidShe's fair whose beauty makes her gay.*

Dolly, though born in the jungles of Panama, has no savagery in her conduct. Rather to the contrary, refinement and sincerity characterize her. Perhaps we may attribute to her sparkling eyes, the train of broken youthful hearts she has left in her wake. Basketball 2, Councillor 2, 3, Class Ring Committee, Junior Prom Committee 3, Hockey, French Club, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Class Dues 3, 4, Chairman Class Prophecy, Write-up Committee 4.

Rachel Elsa MillsThe reward goeth to the diligent.*

Rachel is a loyal devotee of the Girl Scouts, and employs much of her leisure time in its activities. In the line of sports, basketball is her chief love, and in it she exhibits considerable prowess. As a student Rachel is unsurpassed. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Edna Mary MoranHer eyes excel the planets which astronomers admire.*

There's something about Edna that will make you look twice. Yes, it's that something! Edna thinks her name to be old fashioned; but what's better than mixing the old with the new? She knows how to wear her clothes and is classed among our goodlookers. Basketball, Volleyball 2, Hockey 4.

Oscar Kullervo Niemi

Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm.

Another alumnus of the shorties, Oscar is a friend of every one. His time during the winter is taken up by the Ramblers of the South Side for whom he plays. When baseball swings into action Oscar will be hearing the coach's call as he's the manager. Assistant Manager of Baseball 3, Relay 3.

Harry Peter Nikitas

Better be small and shine than be great and cast a shadow.

Nik has gained much recognition because of his prowess in playing football. He is also a star guard on the basketball team. His popularity can be attributed to his witty and humorous remarks which will be long remembered by his senior classmates. Basketball 3, Football 4.

Wilho Alvar Nystrom

Come forth into the light of things.

Philosophically Wilho doesn't take studies or school too seriously, believing that the world will revolve on its axis even if he doesn't exert himself. Yet he is no shirker when a task comes his way.

Fred Albert Oinonen

Of manners gentle, of affections mild.

Fred seems to spend so much time riding around and indulging in hunting that he is unable to do quite all his homework. He has the reputation of not caring for women, so he can usually be seen in the company of a gang of boys.

Dorothy Muriel Mosher

*Happy am I; from care I'm free.
Why aren't they all contented like me?*

Dot is the tall girl whom you have so often seen riding around in an open car with a tall fellow. And don't they go like the wind! Naturally she's never late to church or school with such a capable chauffeur. Orchestra 2, 3, 4.

Claire Elizabeth Mossey

Gentle to hear, kind to judge.

Claire's great interest is music. She is part of the Harmony Trio which has entertained us during several of our school activities, and accompanies the trio with the ukulele. Besides this, she plays the trumpet in the school band. Hockey 2, 3, Glee Club, Band 4.

Ursula Frances Mulcahy

Bid me discourse, I will enchant thine ear.

Ursie, "I've got the strangest feeling," Mulcahy excels in the dramatic art and by her skillful interpretations helped to make our dramatic productions successful. After graduating from Emerson College of Oratory, she hopes to become a radio announcer. Her wit and sarcasm are well known. Hockey 2, French Club 3, 4, Basketball, Dramatic Club, Open Meeting 2, 3, 4, Junior-Senior Reception Committee 3, Chairman of Joke Committee of the Boulder, Senior Class Play 4.

Marjorie Munro

*I dare not trust these eyes.
They dance in mist and dazzle with surprise.*

Marge, a very merry little brunette, is one of the gayest and happiest personages, who just can't seem to keep the opposite sex off her mind. Hence she is an excellent dancer, very much in demand at dance halls and skating rinks. Hockey, Basketball 2.

Frederic Lesure ParkhurstIt is a plague to be too handsome a man.*

Proclaimed the most handsome personage of our class, Freddie still manages to be considered quite a wit; especially in Miss Dunn's class where he keeps her on guard against his sage remarks. His blond wavy hair is not his only attraction by any means. Relay Team 3.

Nathaniel Howard PeaseBut what is your duty? What the day commands.*

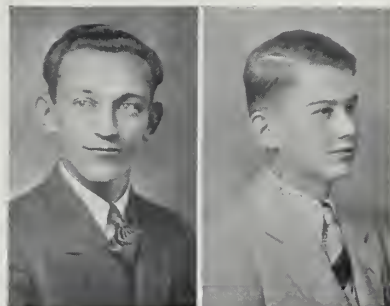

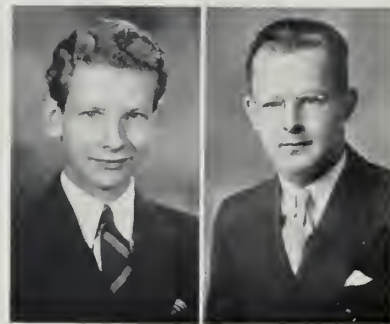

Howard often deplores that he cannot accomplish all he would like to as he has high scholastic honor to maintain, his outside work, and so many forms of recreation to enjoy. One form being lengthy telephone conversations with a certain fair maid. Round Table, Write-up Committee 4, Football 2, 3, 4.

James Louis PetersHis friends are everywhere.*

Truly, Jimmie makes friends wherever he goes with his attractive happy-go-lucky disposition. A polished behavior distinguishes him from most seniors and perhaps his primary interest in the fairer members of our class justifies and prompts it. Dramatic Club 2, 3.

John Edward PetersonHis years are young, but his experience great.*

The above adage is very true about Pete. At times we wondered how he received such good marks without study, but it is a system which only Pete knows. He is quite bashful about girls in school, but outside his manner is a complete reversal. Councillor 3.

Irene Mac MurrayMischief dances in her eyes
And smiles upon her lips.*

Irene, with her sparkling eyes and inimitable smile, always brightens up a class with her presence. Having a great love for sports, she indulges in them outside of school. Irene is seen at many dances. We hear she has a weakness for fudgicles. Hockey, Basketball 2.

Ruth Lillian MustakangasThou who hast the fatal gift of beauty.*

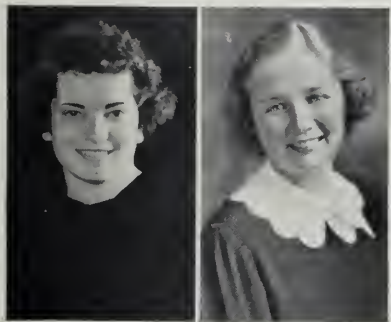

This blonde, rosy-cheeked damsel who does Mr. Hubbard's errands every other week is Ruth. Dancing and skating comprise her major enjoyments, but her scholastic standing suffers not from these indulgences. We admire her for her frankness and power of argumentation. Class Banner Committee 3.

Anna NikitasBusiness before pleasure.*

Anna lends her service during the odd weeks to the typewriting room, seeing that none of the beginners are using the wrong fingers while typing. Although her eyes are small they see all. Her name has often been seen on the honor roll. Basketball 2, 3, Hockey 2, 3, 4.

Lucy Mary PallozziI dare not trust those eyes
They dance in mists, dazzle, and surprise.*

Lucy has large dark eyes that attract much attention and are very effective in expressing her various moods. She seems to be a carefree girl, but she also has her serious moments and proves this by having her name appear frequently on the honor roll. Basketball 2, Hockey, Volleyball 2, 4.

Walter Bernard Pierce

*We grant although he had much wit,
He was very shy of using it.*

This certainly applies to Walt in a classroom, but outside he's always breaking up a good get-together by his wisecracks. The Y is his hang-out, especially the Aviation Club. He's certain to make a name in aviation for the class of '37. Relay Team, Dramatic Club, Junior Class Color Committee 3, Red and Gray 4.

Maurice Omer Poirier

He was a man, take him for all.

Because of his short stature, Maurice is appropriately nicknamed Barrel, for as any football player, who has opposed him in a game, will tell you, he is as hard to move as a barrel of nails. As an amateur wrestler, he is meritorious. Football 4.

Louis Vito Posco

Louie, not fond of socials but sociable enough himself, found Spanish one of the few highlights of school life. The Salem Street Playground often formed the setting for his various athletic interests and friendly contacts. Football 2.

Harry Coleman Potter

His presence lends its warmth to all who come before it.

A lad with a smile of utter happiness always lighting his countenance, apparently at the mere joy of living. A diligent student, as yet uninterested in the fairer sex, his outside activities are working and indulging in the sporting activities of his neighborhood. Basketball 2, Dramatic Club 2, 3, Junior-Senior Reception Committee 3, Tennis, Class Play 4, Glee Club 2, 3, 4.

Marion Bearce Parker

Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm.

Although Marion—can we ever forget her jocularity?—isn't one of the most outstanding members of our class, she is always there when it comes right down to loyalty to school and to lending a helping hand to a youthful cause! Basketball 2, Dramatic Club 4.

Katherine Parnanen

Jolly, well liked, a good student too.

Kappy, as everyone calls her, comes from Westminster. As her healthy appearance suggests, Katherine enjoys the out-of-doors. She is a perfect swimmer and a fine dancer. Her tact for making and keeping friends is a mystery to us. Glee Club, Dramatic Club, Write-up Committee, Reader's Guild 4.

Alice Petalas

Earnestness and sport are often neighbors.

Poppy is a peppy person who craves athletics. She doesn't always understand why some of the rules she disapproves of are made, and it takes a little persuasion to accustom her to them. However, she has willing and enthusiastic qualities which count a great deal toward winning games. Hockey, Basketball, Volleyball, Glee Club 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club, Reader's Guild 4.

Bernadette Eva Pinard

A smile will go a long, long way.

Bernie is a cheerful, understanding person who is always smiling. These qualities should be helpful to her in the future, as she plans to enter the nursing profession after graduation. Swimming is her favorite sport, but sitting before a Singer machine also produces excellent results.

Kenneth Paul ProginHe has an ever gracious manner.*

Kenny has a winning way about him for he knows how to please the fairer sex and also how to get his lessons without spending much time studying. As we all have weaknesses, it is rumored that Kenny's are parties. Councillor 2, Junior Prom Committee, Dramatic Club 3.

Salmon Wilder Putnam, 4thIn all thy humors whether grave or mellow Thou art such a pleasant fellow.*

If Sam, better known as Butch, ever studies, it is a miracle. His practical jokes menace one's peace of mind constantly. Although he has never actively participated in athletics, his secret ambition is to become a track star, and it is not uncommon to meet him running along South Street toward Leominster. Basketball 2, Junior Prom Committee, Open Meeting, Junior-Senior Reception Committee 3, Cheer Leader 3, 4, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Class Prophecy 4.

James Robert RafuseHis own opinion is his law.*

Jimmy's particular interest is not scholastic honor, although he intends to graduate. In addition to farming, sound machines absorb a great deal of his time and he can often be found working with the owner of one. Perchance he will some day be part owner of a prosperous business.

Joseph John RamondelliHe is often seen but seldom heard.*

Joe has done much to help make good the record of the football team. It is quite obvious that Joe's favorite pastime is not studying, as he is seldom seen with a book. He is quite a happy-go-lucky fellow and always has a smile. Football 4.

Suzanne Delphine PoirierZealous, but modest.*

Susie's translations of Latin are the marvel of Mr. Hubbard's fourth year Latin class. Not only in this subject does her brilliance as a scholar appear, but in others also. Her pleasant personality attracts us to her, and her eyes would be an asset even in Hollywood. French Club 2, Orchestra 2, 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Round Table 4.

Olive Irene PoppO, how full of briars is this working day world.*

Olive is a rosy cheeked lass who is always up and doing—usually something in connection with sports. She enjoys working part time in her father's store and occasionally finds herself there even on school days. Volleyball, Basketball 2, Glee Club 4.

Aino Elizabeth PuranenA well-spring in the wilderness.*

We expect to see rosy-cheeked Aino an Olympic swimming champion some day in the near future, for she has mastered this art to perfection. A high-ranking scholar, a good sport and a real pal, she is a superb addition to our unsurpassed class. Basketball, Pinafore 2, Junior Prom Committee, Belle of Barcelona 3, Glee Club, Debating Club, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Round Table 4, Red and Gray 3, 4.

Lorraine Olivette RheaultShe must be known to be appreciated.*

Lorraine, especially in school, keeps her own counsel. Not without friends, it must be that she possesses that rare quality called reserve. Homework doesn't bother her particularly although she's kept this side of the line without much trouble. Hockey 2.

John Robert Reid

He is the best orator that pleaseth all even the crowd and the clowns.

Bob's famous hair cuts are known to all; his love of movies to all the ushers in town. Although working as an usher in a well-known flicker hall, Bob still goes to a movie on his night off. Football 4.

John Leo Revell

Pleasure and action make the hours seem short.

John is a regular Gothamite, wisecracking his way through every and any situation. Perhaps his brick-top tresses have a great influence on his character and also on all his admiring customers to whom he peddles papers. At least that is a favorite contention.

Murray Adams Rice

Talent convinces—genius but excites.

Murray spends his leisure time doing home work to keep up with Downing, his standard of measure. He has been a valuable asset to the Latin classes and now, would you believe it, Mr. Hubbard, he is considering taking up Colonial architecture as a life work. Orchestra 3, 4, Band 2, 3, 4.

Everett James Rines

*I am weary of days and hours
Desires and dreams and powers
And everything but sleep.*

Everett and Morrilly were like two lovely berries on a stem until Everett was moved from Room 205 nearer heaven. But being separated doesn't worry them, for they are together every possible minute before school begins and after.

Mary Rae Richardson

*Her voice was ever soft, gentle, and low;
an excellent thing in woman.*

Mary is an unassuming young miss who has long hid the fact from us that she is highly adept in the culinary art, and should set an appetizing table for some lucky man in the future. Glee Club 3, 4.

Thelma Gertrude Robinson

It adds a precious seeing to the eye.

Flaxen-haired Thelma keeps the book and magazine publisher in business, as is evidenced by the fact that she is never seen without a book. Whether to follow in the foot steps of Florence Nightingale or enter business life has her in a quandary. Hockey, Basketball 2, Dramatic Club 2, 3, Reader's Guild 4.

Judith Jennie Rosek

*Hail there, fellow well met
Be merry today—tomorrow forget*

Jennie, besides being one of our diminutive seniors, is one of our most ardent gum chewers. Wherever she is seen, Gert is not far distant. It is said they even manage to take sessions together. What price friendship! Basketball, Hockey 2.

Claire Rousseau

She is gentle as zephyrs blowing before the world.

Claire has gone along throughout our high school days making a host of friends along the way. It's hard to understand how she managed to keep up in her studies with the great amount of cooking and knitting which she busied herself with. Hockey 2, Dramatic Club, Class Color Committee 3, French Club 3, 4, Basketball 4.

Raymond Arthur RobertsonHis bark is worse than his bite.*

Ray comes from that section of Fitchburg called Waites Corner, so he has the privilege of riding back and forth in a bus. Not so smart in lessons but still with something in back of what he did say. It was tough to be a victim of his teasings. Baseball 2, 3, 4, Relay Team 3, 4.

John Francis RogersI am the very pink of courtesy.*

If you should chance to see a good-sized lad, with a somewhat preoccupied manner, hurrying along, burdened with a trombone case, it's sure to be Johnnie. Though quite busy, he isn't too much occupied however to pay marked attention to the fairer sex. Open Meeting 2, 3, Class Ring Committee, Councillor 3, Band, Orchestra 2, 3, 4, Manager of the Boulder 4.

Charles Lansdale RutanHe was a man, take him for all.*

Charlie is, as we say, a regular guy with a manly physique to be admired. Although not a talkative lad in any sense of the word, a witty contribution to a dull conversation is nothing unusual from him.

LeRoy Harley RyderDo noble things, not dream them all day long.*

Success as incarnated in dreams seems to be the motto Roy pursues. Mayhap his dreams will aid him to rise to the top with his sax in future days. Though Mt. Globe Street sees him quite often, we are inclined to believe not for orchestra rehearsals. Band, Orchestra 2, 3, 4.

Arline Lorraine RumleyA sunny disposition is a treasure.*

Arline always has some way to let us know that she is present. Although living quite a distance from school, she prefers to walk rather than to take the school bus. Arline is also interested in sports, her favorite ones being dancing, swimming, and ice skating.

Adeline Carmella RussoThe most manifest sign of wisdom is cheerfulness.*

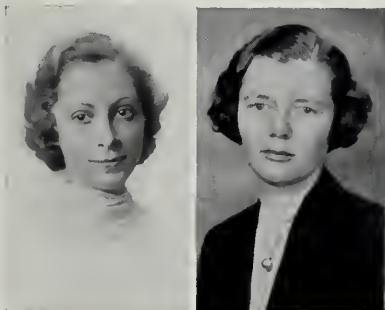

Adeline, ever among the high honor students, worked during the Senior year for Miss Sherwin in the library. It was here that we learned to know better her gentle ways. This gift of smiling should take her far in whatever field she plans to enter. Volleyball 2, Glee Club 4.

Eleanor Grace SacinoThat combination so rare to beat, The student and the athlete.*

Valiant is the word for diminutive Eleanor. Her courage and ability have made her a natural leader in sports. A star basketball, hockey, and volleyball player, the only game she doesn't play is football and she makes up for that by her loyal support at the games. Basketball, Hockey, Volleyball 2, 3, 4, Glee Club 4.

Dorothea Irja SalminenHeav'n had decreed that I should life enjoy.*

Of what worth are opinions if not expressed freely seems to be Dot's philosophy. Her effervescent spirit produces a distinct personality which accepts life lightly yet with a certain reserve. Although studies are decidedly not Dot's favorite diversion, she manages to present favorable reports.

Herbert Schoales, Jr.

An honest man's word's as good as his bond.

Herbie sits in the musical minded section of our class—playing his trombone in an ever-growing orchestra of note, and even writing arrangements. All the success with which he has met, he richly deserves; for we remember his earnest effort to get ahead. Band 2, 3, 4.

Raymond Karl Schrader

The burden which is well borne becomes light.

Ray finds several activities to occupy his time including clerking in a grocery store, delivering orders, and attending school. He is also President of the Christian Youth Club of the C. C. Church. With all these duties to attend to, no wonder mathematics gets the best of him.

Joseph Chalmers Secino

No mind is thoroughly well organized that is deficient in a sense of humor.

Joe's great ambition is to become a six-day bicycle rider. He has been seen many times riding through town on his new velocipede. We all wonder who the lucky girl is down on Water Street.

Robert William Shayer

The will to do, the soul to dare.

What joy portrays itself through the personality of the ever smiling Bob. He, ever cheerful, cooperates in all our class activities. He enjoys dancing and also sports, with special interest, perhaps, given to football. Junior-Senior Reception Committee 3, French Club 3, 4, Dramatic Club, Glee Club 4.

Hazel Cecelia Salo

*The softer charm that in her manner lies,
Is framed to captivate yet not surprise.*

True to blond fashion, modest Hazel will blush very easily. But why worry! It's not a lost art! At present she is practicing domestic science at home and will, we hope, in the future be expert in taking care of her own home.

Julia Veronica Samulenas

The most completely lost of all days is that on which one has not laughed.

Where does that cute little pug nose between two rosy cheeks come from? West Fitchburg! And the possessor of it also has an extraordinarily fine penmanship, making her very much in demand as a future office worker.

Muriel Gertrude Sanborn

In quietness and confidence shall be your strength.

The company of athletes certainly pleases Muriel, at least she received plenty of it—both at Crocker Field, where she served as secretary to Coach Amcott, and while ushering at the football and basketball games. Hockey 2.

Constance Louise Sands

*Who mixed reason with pleasure
And wisdom with mirth.*

Connie is a live-wire who simply radiates activity and happiness. Although the mail from Bates College is one of her primary enjoyments, she doesn't allow exterior interests to keep her off the high honor list. Hockey, Basketball 2, Class Play Ticket Committee, Open Meeting 2, 3, French Club, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Joke Committee for the Boulder, Class Play, Round Table 4.

Max ShumanThe best of goods come in small packages.*

Max, whose wit and learning far surpass his size, converts armies of people into his lasting friendship with one disarming smile. Poetry, drumming in a local orchestra, and basketball manager while eagerly awaiting a tournament invitation are his ambitious sidelines. Debating Club, Dramatic Club 2, Manager of Basketball 4.

Albert SilvermanWhen I speak, let my voice be heard.*

Silverman, the possessor of a silver tongue, joined our ranks this year, immediately releasing the impression that his diet consisted of a dictionary for lunch and a thesaurus for dinner. His fluent speech together with his wit have delightfully amazed his classmates.

Harold Kingdon SimpsonYour phrase-tormenting fantastic chorus,
With strangest words at your beck and call.*

Many is the time when we have secretly lamented that Simp's Atlantean physique and virile strength have been missing from the gridiron and basketball court, but obviously he is a very busy man. Simp, due to his extensive reading, is an A1 speller!

Kendall Grayson SmartOf stature, he was of great length.*

With gun on shoulder, woods expanding before him, Ken stands in his element. Or as he is equally at home amid the inside mechanism of a car, it is not uncommon to hear a tinkering noise coming from the direction of his garage.

Elizabeth Campbell SangerThe force of her own merit makes her way.*

Elizabeth's dreams and hopes consist of books and libraries. She hopes one day to have one of her own, where she can browse around at will, ever adding to her store of knowledge, and receiving inspiration for the writing of short stories.

Jean Betty SaulShe came, we saw, she conquered.*

What a surprise we had in store for us when this sedate young miss from Boston arrived in our Junior year. She turned out to be a witty, baby imitating, good sport. Her originality and personality have made her a most welcome member of our class.

Beatrice Pauline SchafishI have a heart with room for every joy.*

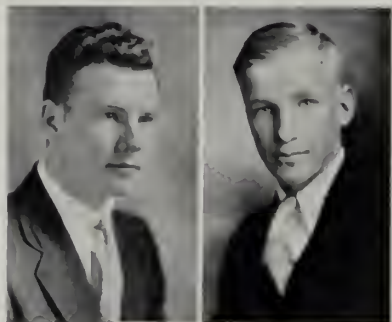

Bea greets her friends with the original, "Is that all you have to wear," or "Don't you ever wear anything different," but no offense is ever intended for that is merely her way of getting 'em going. Oddly enough chemistry is her favorite subject. Glee Club 3, 4, Reader's Guild 4.

Doris Christina SchlottThe odor is the rose;
The smile, the woman.*

Doris is a person, who, because of her size, has to make a double effort to make herself seen and heard. Her merry laughter is a great aid to brightening up our classrooms on cloudy days. She'll make a capable gymnastic teacher, don't you think? Basketball 2, Glee Club 3, Hockey 2, 3.

Richard West Smith

*His jolliness knows no end
He is to everyone a friend.*

Red is of the opinion that the world offers many diversions besides study, and when time is limited he omits the one which the majority disregard. His outstanding character trait, the ability to see a joke even when on himself, has caused him to be in popular demand. Band 2, 3, Relay Team 3.

Toivo William Soini

Toivo is quite a capable farmer, and what is more a true-blue bucolic. This blond lad owns a pair of swift legs which fact assures success to any Relay Team for which he carries the baton.

Raymond Sontag

He has the situation well in hand.

Ray's popularity sprung up with the birth of the musical Mountaineers whom he led quite appealingly with his cultivated mountain drawl. We often wonder if the wa-hoos which he flourishes during selections don't suggest that the Mountaineer's gain was the hog-caller's loss. Band 2, 3.

Earl Wilson Stacey

He is simply and staunchly true to his duty.

Earl remains unruffled under all circumstances for he belongs to the category of calm men. His sprinting prowess was a great addition to our relay team, and we hear he trained conscientiously by running a mile before breakfast. We gather he didn't run far after breakfast. Relay Team 3, 4, Track 4, Baseball 4.

Louise Sophie Schrader

A soft answer turneth away wrath.

Louise is a girl with sterling qualities, a good friend, a good scholar, and a thoroughly grand sport. Her eyes speak a language all their own. To strangers she appears to be a very demure girl, but are we all strangers? Basketball, Volleyball 2, Dramatic Club, Junior Prom Committee, Class Dues 3.

Angelina Mary Scialabba

*So active, so inquiring an eye, so nimble a tongue,
And so varied a discourse.*

Angie is our athletic queen who dislikes any obstacles which may prevent her from going in her own free way. She likes to read mystery stories, eat chocolate pie, and just loves to tease. Angie plans to go into training in some hospital. Basketball 2, Volleyball 2, 3, Glee Club 3, 4, Hockey 4.

Assunta Mary Scialabba

What a wondrous life is this I lead.

Assunta is friendly and always willing to lend a helping hand. She is kept busy working mornings in a grocery store, and performing special duties at home; besides this she always has her lesson well prepared. Glee Club 3, 4.

Agnes Cecilia Seney

I am in charity with the world.

Beneath Agnes' serenity is a likeable jovial nature. Her athletic activities are very limited but we overlook this when we think of her great enthusiasm for sewing. She aspires to become a hair-dresser.

Maynard Albert SteinbergThe world knows little of its greatest men.*

Maynard is interested in baseball and football. We don't hear much about him in school but it wouldn't surprise us if some day we heard that he was at Columbia University or some other college studying to become a chemist.

William Herbert StirlingThe only way to have a friend is to be one.*

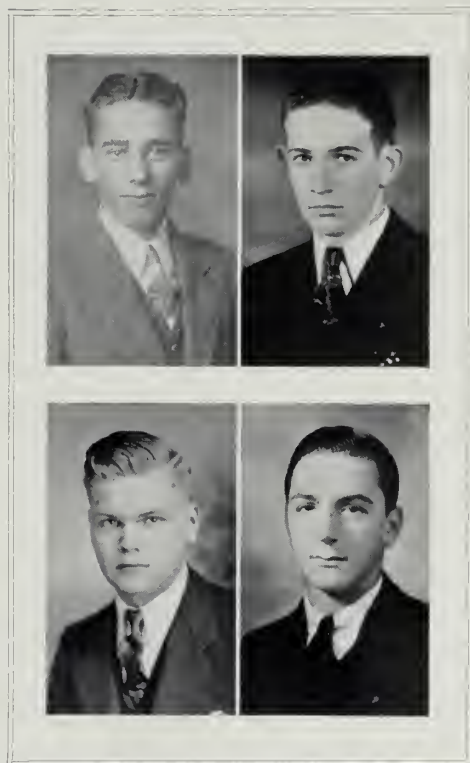

Girls, attention!! Introducing Bill, of the curly locks and stately stature. He was cannon fodder for the football team, but he always came up grinning. Bill must get his homework done in his Ford for he is always to be seen riding around in it every night. Relay Team, Junior-Senior Reception Committee 3, Red and Gray Board 3, 4, Football 4.

Rudolph Emil SyrjanenA silent, shy, peace-loving man,
He seemed no fiery partisan.*

Ashby's loss was Fitchburg's gain when Rudy came to join our ranks. Rudy always has been quiet but probably the size of our high school has increased his timidity. Anyway, we know he is fond of skating and even used to shoot baskets in the ol' town hall.

Erasmus Paul TagliaviaOnly so much do I know as I have lived.*

Should you be sitting in the famous Strand theatre and suddenly be jelly beaned, you would know at once that Tarzan Tagliavia was in his favorite rendezvous. A serene fellow is he, yet when he swings the golf clubs artistic temperament is evident. Relay Team 3, Baseball 2, 3, 4.

Gertrude Dagmar SeppalaYou are looked for, and called for, asked, and sought for.*

Gert will long be remembered for her home-work lending establishment. Justly she merits the epithet studious; yet is not a book-drudge by any means. For studies come naturally to her, leaving her ample time for sewing in which she obviously excels. Belle of Barcelona 3, Red and Gray, Glee Club 3, 4, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Round Table, Write-up Committee 4.

Eloise Cathrine ShortsleevesA happy genius is the gift of nature.*

Eloise is one girl that is not lacking in popularity. She seldom misses a dance or any of the other school activities. She is a willing worker and has helped to make many school functions successful. As a cheer-leader she proved to be invaluable. Basketball 2, Glee Club 3, 4, Orchestra 2, 3, 4, Class Play, Dramatic Club 4.

Ruth Lydia SjobergBeauty's the thing that counts in women.*

This attractive femme is a vivacious girl. Her good personality and character account for her hearty participation in outside social activities and a greeting comes forth from Ruthie's lips whenever she meets her friends. This, however, does not deny that she is lacking in her studies. Reader's Guild 4.

Josephine SkorkoShe had a wish to smile, no need to sigh.*

Soft-speaking Josey is one of our out-of-town girls. There must be something about stamp collecting that makes one quiet and reserved to the outside world; but she isn't so when out hiking or skating. Josey plans to carry on her domestic interests after graduation. Glee Club 4.

William Ignatius TaylorA good heart is better than all the heads in the world.*

Bill is one of our many students from West Fitchburg. Probably his first interest is in the fairer sex of our class. He spends his spare time either caddying at the Oak Hill Country Club or riding around in one of those open-air contraptions. Glee Club 4.

Kenneth Edward ThomasA light heart lives long.*

On a bicycle built for two, tra, la, la. Kenny's chief means of transportation is his bike and there are quite a few feminine admirers who would love to accompany him, if the vehicle would hold two.

Tenho Charles TikkaSuccess follows earnest effort.*

Knowing Tenho and his flying fingers has been a class pleasure; even his frequent debates have been enjoyable. Although Tenho is not over fond of the pedagogic profession, there is one subject, driving, which he thoroughly enjoys teaching, and particularly to young ladies.

Norman Douglas TuckerA little nonsense now and then
Is relished by the best of men.*

This—oh—so cute lad revels in the advanced stages of nonsense. Normy has a particular liking for lassies and spring. Although a brilliant scholar, he just can't resist taking a day off when everything is budding and going for a country jaunt astride his two-wheeler. Junior-Senior Reception Committee 3, Red and Gray 3, 4, French Club, Councillor, Class Play 4, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Barbara Ellen SmithA fiery head belongs to a fiery heart.*

Smitty, with her crown of red glory and spicy temperament, conforms to the above quotation. Nursing appears high on her horizon. Anyone who is gifted with such extraordinary hair, must inevitably have the extraordinary ability of pulling her patients thru to recovery. Dramatic Club, Councillor 2, Glee Club 3, Round Table, Write-up Committee 4.

Katherine Eva SmithA faultless body and a flameless mind.*

Have you heard that giggle? It's a Westminster speciality of our pretty Kitty. Her pet hobby is skating but you can be sure that there are always other marks on the ice besides her own. Dramatic Club 2, Class Color Committee 3, Glee Club 3, 4.

Irma Lenora SnellmanKnowledge comes from faithful study.*

Irma is a girl who likes most of her studies of which she prefers history and bookkeeping. An enthusiastic sports fan but one who does not take an active part in them. Irma enjoys her work in night-school.

Coula SpyropoulosA girl with spirit, a girl with pep,
A finer friend has not been known yet.*

Coula is always cheerful, and prepared to fall in line and cooperate; in short, she is one of those enviable persons who constantly manage to keep their sunny side up. Coula is also a part-time student who helps Miss Brown. Junior Prom Committee, Basketball, Dramatic Club 3, Hockey 3, 4, Glee Club 4.

Arvo Charles Tuikka

The man who gives pleasure is as charitable as he who relieves suffering.

Arvo is a newcomer in our midst whose modesty has concealed his many merits too well. He is an accomplished pianist and a good student, interested primarily in radio which he plans to continue as his life work.

Arthur William Turner

A plain honest man.

Arthur is one from whom very little is heard unless it be at the opportune moment, when he speaks up convincingly and good-naturedly. The world of sports has little appeal for Arthur who, although occasionally donning skates, is completely content in peaceful surroundings.

Herman Charles Vieweg

Good humor is goodness and wisdom combined.

This jolly lad is famous around school mainly because of two things; his love of lunch-counter hamburgers, and the devoted companion in whose company he is always seen, namely, a forty-pound leather trunk which he totes from class to class. Dramatic Club 3.

Ernest Ralph Waddell

There is great ability to know how to conceal one's ability.

Among the enjoyments receiving most attention in Monsieur Waddell's life is the increasingly popular sport of roller-skating at which he is very adept. Ernest never seems to worry over such trivial things as studies but we nevertheless feel that he will win success.

Eleanor Gertrude Staveley

A cup must be bitter that a smile will not sweeten.

Eleanor is that type of person who seems never to be without a smile. We think that Eleanor's most cherished subject is short-hand. At least, it is her favorite topic of conversation while walking home from school.

Elinor Adelaide Stoddard

Amusement, to an observing mind, is study.

El is one of the quieter members of our class. Yet her ever-ready smile and quick wit are well known to her friends. Her interest is centered around outside activities and having come from a family of basketball players, she is an enthusiastic player and fan. Volleyball 2, Basketball 2, 3, 4.

Louise Mariette Thibert

The restraining grace of common sense.

Louise's delightful personality makes her stand out in any group. She is an active member of the Sub-Deb Club but its activities never prevent her from loyally attending all school functions. Playing the violin is one of her diversions. Orchestra 2, Glee Club 3, 4, French Club, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Thanksgiving Dance Committee, Class Play 4.

Barbara Muriel Thompson

Full of mischief, a jolly good sport.

It's really too bad that Babs isn't college-bound, but mayhap her collegiate swagger and jolly whistle from the depths of her tom-boyish heart won't go entirely unappreciated in some hospital. Babs is a grand friend and hard to excel in witty combat. Basketball 2, Dramatic Club, Reader's Guild 4.

Robert Burleigh Wade

He is always laughing for he has an infinite deal of wit.

It isn't very difficult to find Robert around school; either look for a flashy sport coat or keep an ear to the ground for a joke. In either case Bob is right there. Sometimes the jokes are really good.

Alexander Joseph Waskewicz

Cleanliness is a fine life preserver.

Alec rightly deserves to be called one of the neatest boys in our class. He arises before breakfast to venture out in the morning air to deliver papers. Alec occupies a space as one who helps to keep up the honor roll.

Robert Peirce Webster

An able man who showed his spirit by gentle words and resolute actions.

Here is a boy seldom seen in school affairs, but still a member of our class. He is known for his shyness, but just watch him with a group of fellow students.

Roy Douglas Webster

Young fellows will be young fellows.

Roy has been another one of our lively members—well known for his good nature and his wit. He hails from West Fitchburg but his friendships are widely spread throughout the entire town. He is also noticed for his neat appearance.

Dorothy Pearl Thrasher

Her stature tall—I hate a dumpy woman.

Dot is the tall, slim girl who works mornings in the superintendent's office. One could almost say that she is recognized by a never-ending motion of the lower jaw, the result of chewing gum, but there are a few times when the movement ceases. Volleyball 3.

Louise Elizabeth Townsend

Dance on, blithe spirit, dance on.

Louise is one of those chic girls who look as if they had just stepped out of Vogue, or Harper's Bazaar. Her vivacious and sparkling personality make her the most popular girl of our class, and her dancing would cause even Ginger Rogers to look to her laurels. Basketball, Open Meeting 2, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Class Play 4.

Lempi Helena Tuomi

*Energetic, witty, laughing with glee,
She always appears to be quite carefree.*

Happy, merry and good-natured, either laughing or singing, Lempi is seldom quiet. Although it seems easier for Lempi to laugh than to be serious, she can do both. She is very interested in co-operation and is ever ready to do her share. Dramatic Club 2, Glee Club 3, 4.

Marion Dency Walker

Call a spade a spade. What's in a name?

Some of Pat's favorite activities are dancing, hiking, skating, and especially swimming in the placid waters of Wyman's pond. Marion likes candy and boys but cereals are taboo. After graduation she plans to continue her work as a telephone operator. Glee Club 3.

Robert Alvin Welch

*If I do vow a friendship
I'll perform it to the last article.*

Welchy is a fellow who combines a high school education with practical working experience, and very practical too. When he finds time to do his homework has often puzzled us, since he has worked as janitor on Saturdays at the Crescent. Football 3.

Robert Nye Wells

A quiet fellow well known to few.

This ardent nimrod is well-known to the four-footed and winged inhabitants of the forests. Even the little scaly beings of the lakes and rivers realize the game is up when Bob arrives, toting his rod or gun.

Edmund Norman Wheeler

A good disposition is more valuable than gold.

Edmund travels back and forth between school and home on a bicycle and one often sees him riding around just for pleasure. He is well liked by all his classmates and friends for his unobtrusive manners and warm-hearted friendliness to all who have the pleasure of knowing him. Dramatic Club 2, 3.

Gordon Bernard Whitney

*Night after night
He sat and bleared his eyes with books.*

G. B. is one of those rare boys truly interested in studies and has thoroughly succumbed to the studious atmosphere of Westminster. His friends, especially among the girls, and in the band where he blows on the trombone, are numerous. French Club 3. Orchestra 3, 4, Band 2, 3, 4.

Margaret Weissbach

*Come, and trip it, as you go,
On the light fantastic toe.*

Peg is quite fast in many ways; first, with her slightly Arliss accent, she is never at a loss for words; in the second place, her nimble fingers have created loads of knitted sweaters, and finally she can easily hold her own at any dance recital or entertainment. Dramatic Club 3, Glee Club 3, 4.

Phyllis Marguerite Whittemore

Had a tongue at will and yet was never loud.

Many of Phyllis's leisure hours are taken up with the pressing of elevator buttons at the Crescent and her personality helps to keep the business there on the up. Her natural aptitude for writing makes her English assignments a pleasure rather than a burden. Hockey, Basketball 2.

Joyce Pearl Whitten

A smile that glowed with friendship.

Joyce is noted for her letter writing. She is known to have hordes of regular correspondents; but, who wouldn't write to one with the rare ability to make a letter interesting? But her future does not point to penmanship pedagogy but to nursing, or writing temperature charts. Hockey 2, Glee Club 3, 4, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Evi Wilen

A true blue friend for any time.

In our Sophomore year, Evi brought Connecticut's sunshine to our classes and, ever since, we have been warmed by her sunny presence. She also verifies the traditional Westminster legend of being a regular honor roll student and is planning to enter some institution of higher learning. Write-up Committee 4.

Raymond Vincent WilliamsGood nature and good sense must ever join.*

Ray, the possessor of a broad smile which gradually breaks into a mirthful laugh, harlequined his way through school, and applied his pent-up energy to his trumpet after school. His unselfish ownership of a roadster gathers friends of both sexes. Orchestra 2, 3, Class Ring Committee 3, Band 2, 3, 4.

James Francis WymanHis limbs are cut in manly mold
For hardy sports and contest bold.*

Wimpy, who perhaps possesses the most taking personality of our class, has distinguished himself as an actor, humorist, and athlete, irresistible even to the teachers, at times! His indomitable ability on the gridiron and on the basketball floor has sent many a good team to defeat. Football, Basketball, Baseball, Dramatic Club 3, 4, Class Play 4.

Victor William ZematisFor if I laugh at mortal things
'Tis that I may not weep.*

This neat classmate was one of the honored members on Squad B last fall. During hunting season he journeys to the woods for rabbits—or any animals for that matter. Vic may have special intentions for the future but as yet he hasn't revealed them. Football 3, 4.

Isabel WilsonWit is the salt of conversation, not the food.*

Anyone who has ever tried to tease Izzy, has experienced the witty comebacks which shoot forth forcibly and with good humor from her store of witticisms. And with profit, too, can her sportsmanship in all activities, be viewed and followed. Hockey, Basketball 2, Junior Prom Committee 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Debating Club 4.

Betty Dobson WinchesterThe more we have read, the more we have learned.*

Betty is a first-rate student, whose name has always been on the honor roll. Much of her leisure time is spent in reading worthwhile books. She is not without a hobby, for she may often be seen out riding on horseback. Dramatic Club, French Club 2, 3, Class Dues Committee 3, Red and Gray 3, 4, Round Table 4.

Norma Christine WithingtonShe was good as she was fair.*

Norma, who comes to us from Ashburnham, has a very pleasing nature, and there aren't many dull moments when she is around. Norma likes outdoor sports and many times we hear her telling us of the good time she had skating.

Dorothy Weare WoodModesty is the beauty of women.*

Where would this world be if it weren't for songsters like Dot to brighten us up? With indefatigable acquiescence, the Harmony Trio of which she is part, has obliged at all school functions. Dot is what we would call, in contemporary terms, a good kid. Glee Club 4.

Phyllis Frances YoungIt's not so much what we think but what we do.*

One of Phyllis' notable features is her one track mind in the direction of a red head I'm sure we all know. In addition, she has a good disposition, a nice hand at hunting and fishing, and musical talents.

FAMOUS SAYINGS

Hello sweetheart—Howard Lacey.
 Be good and if you can't be good call me up—Sam Putnam.
 Just one minoote!—Jimmie Wyman.
 Know any jokes?—Dot Harland.
 What did we have for homework?—Julia Forbes.
 It's a great life if you don't waken.—Arthur Gooch.

Miss Taylor: "Write sentences, using the words 'analyze' and 'anatomy'."

B. Winchester wrote:

"My analyze over the ocean
 My analyze over the sea
 O, who will go over the ocean
 And bring back my anatomy."

Our Ideal Student Should Have

Eyes like Lorraine Barbour, Leon Plante.
 Nose like Isabel Wilson, Everett Murchie.
 Mouth like Ruth Mustakangas, Edward McMurray.
 Hair like Margaret Small, Themistoclis Michaelides.
 Complexion like Doris Hannigan, Frederick Butterfield.
 Teeth like Louise Schrader, Norman Tucker.
 Chin like Lois Hardy.
 Build like Anna Fritz, Spiros Kandianis.

Mr. Perkins: "Miss Chasteney, what does HNO<sub>3</sub> signify?"

Barbara: "Well, ah-er-r—I've got it right on the tip of my tongue, sir."

Mr. Perkins: "Well, you'd better spit it out. It's nitric acid."

A LITTLE CLOSE HARMONY

Just a Gigolo
 Dream a While
 You've Got to be a Football Hero
 I'm a Lone Cow Hand
 Always
 Just one More Chance
 I Hate Myself
 Haunting Me
 Every Hour of the Day
 Every Once in a While
 Goody Goody
 Sweet Adeline
 Kiss Me Again
 Alexander's Rag Time Band
 I'm in a Dancing Mood
 I'll Sing You a Thousand Love Songs
 Smoke Gets in your Eyes
 A Fine Romance
 I'd Rather Lead a Band
 I Won't Dance

R. Wade: "I put my whole mind in this verse."

Miss Dunn: "Evidently. I see it's blank verse."

Henstridge: "I'm getting a new siren for my car."

P. Young: "Oh, George, does that mean we're through?"

Brigham: "Here comes the parade. Where's Aunty?"

Morey: "She's upstairs waving her hair."

Brigham: "Goodness, can't we afford a flag?"

B. Connors: "F.H.S. must be haunted."

D. Harkness: "Why?"

Barb: "They're always talking about the school spirit."

Mr. Hubbard: "Translate 'Pax in Bello,' Miss Poirier."

Suzanne: "Freedom from indigestion."

Ruth Flaum: "At last I've written something that I think will be accepted by the first magazine I send it to."

Alice Petalas: "What is it?"

Ruth: "A check for a years' subscription."

George McCue: "I'd like to see something cheap in a straw hat."

Clerk: "Try this on and look in the mirror."

THE EPISODE OF A RAINCOAT

'Twas raining hard, we were in school,
 Asitting wet and worried,
 Then Spiros missed his jigamarig,
 And after it he scurried.

Alas, alas, alack-a-day,
 Where was that rain-proof coat?
 He said, "Could it be stolen?"
 A lump rose in his throat.

That gave a thought, who'd seen it last?
 How, just where, and when-a?
 Something else was missing too,
 And that was Raymond Jena.

Both overcoat and boy were gone,
 They must have left together,
 Because dear Raymond's coat was found,
 As far from him as ever.

Now Spiros has his pride and joy,
 He walks out in the rain,
 And ever since he has it back,
 They never will be twain!

Aarne J. Johnson

Mother: "When the naughty boy threw stones at you, why did you not come and tell me, instead of throwing them back at him?"

Freda Hawkins: "What good would it do to tell you? You couldn't hit the side of a garage!"

HIGHLIGHTS OF OUR WORLD

Top Row:

Nicest Personality: Leon Plante, Louise Townsend
 Best Student: John Rogers, Gertrude Seppala
 Best Dressed: Frederick Butterfield, Betty Winchester

Middle Row:

Cutest: William Bean, Helen Ahola
 Best Athlete: Donald MacLean, Eleanor Sacino
 Best Dancer: James Wyman, Louise Townsend

Bottom Row:

Best Looking: Frederic Parkhurst, Jean Saul
 Wittiest: Robert Wade, Isabel Wilson
 Most Bashful: Murray Rice, Vivian Gorts

Mr. Howe: "What is a circle, Miss Mulcahy?"

Ursula: "A circle is a line which meets its other end without ending."

Rita Fergenson: "What's a literary aspirant, Jean?"

Jean Saul: "I guess it's what an author takes when he has a headache."

Miss Dunn: "What did Juliet say when she met Romeo in the balcony?"

C. Rousseau: "Couldn't you get tickets for the orchestra?"

W. Downing: "Bob, have you ever seen the Catskill Mountains?"

Shayer: "No, but I've seen 'em kill mice."

Mr. Perkins: "Miss Shortsleeves, what's a molecule?"

Eloise: "It's one of those things an Englishman wears on his eye."

To Washington With The Hi-Y.

The Senior boys, who belong to the Hi-Y, according to what information is available, set three entirely new precedents this year in Washington.

The first was walking through that city barefooted, the result of too much walking in uncomfortable shoes, and the second the group went wading in the Potomac at a certain point, just because they had been told that there Washington used to take a dip. After this the boys wanted to go down to the Delaware and take a fleet of boats across, in the fashion of Washington.

Third they all enjoyed an aeroplane trip over the Nation's Capitol emerging not the least bit shaken visibly, yet Marshall was heard to say, on the sly of course, that when ever he came down from an air trip he always had an "up and coming stomach."

Did you know that Isabel Wilson went into the 5 and 10 cent store and asked where the shoe dept. was?

CAN YOU IMAGINE

Doris Hannigan forgetting a violin solo?
 Phyllis Young without Henstridge?
 Johnny Rogers without his homework?
 Marion Parker losing her voice?
 Mr. Dillon driving a 1937 Packard?
 Jack Peterson serious?
 Jimmie Wyman forgetting how to dance?
 Ulrika Adams serious?
 Rachel Mills forgetting to do her homework?
 David Harkness failing in Math?
 Edna Moran in No Man's Land?
 Anna Nikitas making a lot of noise?
 Freddie Butterfield wearing overalls?
 Cutler Jones having to walk to school?
 Lacey when he couldn't laugh?
 Shayer wanting to be an undertaker?
 Claire Aubuchon not acting cultured?
 Norman Tucker with his hair combed?

NO, NEITHER CAN WE.

Kandianis: "I call the goal line Surprise."
 Red McMurray: "Why?"
 Spito: "I can't get over it."

Aino Puranen: "Cutler Jones left his umbrella again. I do believe he'd forget his head if it weren't tied on."

Mary Loddy: "I guess you're right. I heard him say yesterday that he was going to Colorado for his lungs."

Carol Archibald: "They laughed when I walked over to the piano but they were right, I couldn't lift it."

Marjorie Abar: "What is leather made of?"

Anita Husari: "Hide."

Marjorie: "Hide? Why should I hide?"

Anita: "Hide. The cow's outside."

Marjorie: "Oh, let the old cow in, I'm not afraid."

Mr. Sullivan: (finishing a chemistry course) "The examination papers are now in the hands of the printer. Are there any questions?"

Silence. Then from the back of the room, Gordon Whitney, "Who's the printer?"

Mr. Dillon: "Who was the king of France during the Revolution?"

R. Flint: "Louis the Thirteenth—no, the Fifteenth—no, the Fourteenth—no, the—well, anyhow he was in his teens."

URGE FOR THIRST BRINGS WORST

I felt an urge for water
 Ralph Howard wasn't there
 I felt the urge again and said
 "I'm going, I don't care."

I skipped up to the door,
 And I almost stepped outside,
 But there was Mr. Howard
 Quite shocked and stupified.

I skipped inside again
 But he was there already,
 I looked him in his flashing eye,
 And said, "O.K. girl, steady."

"What do you mean," he started in,
 "By walking all around?
 That's why part-timers are not liked,
 Their trust is quite renowned."

"I only went to get a drink,"
 I boldly put in forward,
 "I don't think that's anything wrong,
 Do you—Mr. Howard?"

"I certainly do, and you can go right up to Mr. Chalmers
 And tell him all about yourself!"
 I swore but went up calmly.

Today I came to our dear school—
 The time—there was no question—
 To serve the first of three green slips
 Commonly known as sessions.

Room 310 is always full
 The kids are loud and mussy,
 But after all we're still quite young,
 And teachers are too fussy.

C. Spyropoulos

Bob Conley: "Why don't you laugh when the Math. teacher tells a joke?"

Howard Pease: "I don't have to. I'm dropping it Friday."

Miss Dunn: "Now, pupils, can any of you tell me about Good Friday?"

Ricky Adams: "Yes. He was the fellow that did all the housework for Robinson Crusoe."

Mr. Dillon: "Say, Clinton, if you keep up like you are now you'll be like Napoleon."

Bill Clinton: "How's that?"

Mr. Dillon: "You'll go down in history."

Only those who have tasted unpasteurized milk (most city dwellers have not), know how vastly superior and satisfying it is to the pasteurized brand.

Congratulations - - -

To the City of Fitchburg, its officials, and its citizens, we extend sincere congratulations upon the completion of your beautiful new high school . . . one of the finest and best equipped in America. Your desks and chairs . . . and your auditorium seats are of the latest design and construction. They were manufactured by Heywood-Wakefield Company of nearby Gardner . . . a New England manufacturer with a reputation for quality merchandise which dates back to 1826, one hundred and eleven years ago.

HISTORY

"History, read history!"

That is all I hear
I know that on my dying day
From it I'll steer so clear.

Of course I've always liked it
E'er since I was knee high;
It's in my blood, it's in my bones;
'Twill be there when I die.

I've read some books; I've studied maps;
I've kept them in my head
And every time I read some more
It keeps me out of bed.

History is my pride and joy
It follows me to school
But every time I think of it
I break the golden rule. A. J. J.

Mr. Perkins: "Now Miss Wilen, can you give me some idea of the manner in which blood circulates?"

Evi: "Oh yes, it runs down one leg and up the other."

Traffic Cop: "Don't you know what I mean when I hold up my hand?"

Miss Haskins (meekly): "I ought to. I've been a school teacher for 25 years."

D. Hannigan: "It's raining cats and dogs outside."

Connie Sands: "I know, I just stepped into a poodle."

Salesman: "This book would do half your work."

Arthur Gooch: "O. K. I'll take two of them."

Mr. Ruberti: "How old would a person be who was born in 1897?"
"Man or woman?"

Earl Stacey: "I always laugh
when I see something funny."

Arthur Turner: "You must enjoy yourself when you're shaving."

Motorist: "Are you hurt my boy?"
H. Nikitas (butcher boy): "No,
but I can't find my liver."

Barbara Chasteney: "How small you make me feel."

"Does this wind bother you?"

"No, talk as much as you please."

Conductor: "Your fare."

Dot Daulton: "Thank you."

Freddie Parkhurst: "Love gives me a pain in the neck."

Ally Marshall: "Maybe you're too athletic about it."

Dormitory Conversation

At 7 A.M.

"Y'up?"

"Yup."

Red Smith: "Hey, Doc, can you help me? My name is Smith."

Doctor: "No, I'm sorry; I can't do anything for that."

Ossie MacLean: "Boy, am I hungry . . . I could eat a monkey!"

Bill Hawthorne: "Well, take your hand out of your mouth or you'll be doing it."

Her Big Moment: "I crave to hold you close, I crave to hug you, to kiss you!"

Betty Winchester: "Ah! a crave-man!"

Lucy Pallozi: "What makes your face smell so funny?"

Elsie Iannuzzi: "Oh, I was making spaghetti and the recipe said to rub garlic on your pan."

Kenny Douglas: "What do you think of my family tree?"

Helen Dovedens: "The tree may be a good one, all right, but it looks to me as if the crop was a failure."

Marion Parker: "My father was a successful man. He made his mark."

Barbara Thompson: "Mine couldn't write either."

Alice Leger: "I suppose you've been in the navy so long that you are accustomed to sea legs."

Bud Hall (middie): "Lady, I wasn't even looking."

Mr. Hopkinson: "Stop reaching across the table, Victor. Haven't you a tongue?"

Victor: "Yes, sir, but my arm is longer."

Mr. Hubbard: "Yes, Silverman, 'amo' is the Latin word meaning 'I love'. Now what word suggests its opposite?"

Albert: "Reno."

Connie Emerson: "How do you like my new gown? I got it for a ridiculous price."

Bill Miller: "You mean you got it for an absurd figure."

Harriett MacMullen: "Have you given the gold fish fresh water?"

Muriel Sanborn: "No, they haven't finished the water I gave them last week."

Mrs. Shuman: "I hope you brush your teeth regularly, Max?"

Max: "Brush my teeth? What for? There ain't no hair on my teeth."

Conceited movie actor: "People will gaze at my next picture with open mouths."

Harold Morris: "Yes, it's pretty hard, I suppose, for them to yawn with their mouth shut."

Mr. Sullivan (in Washington): "Now we are going to have a siesta."

Butch Putnam (in a daze (y) ): "I don't want to see Esther; I want to see Daisy."

Helen Erkkila: "As a youngster I learned a lot of bad habits from the movies."

Gert Seppala: "Don't blame the movies; you should have kept your eyes on the screen."

Peg Small (in Congressional Library): "Aren't the etchings lovely?"

Jimmie Wyman (scratching his head): "Yuh, I got an itch too."

Leroy Rider: "Say, can you spare a dollar?"

Ray Williams: "What do you think I am? I have to earn my money by my wits."

Leroy: "Oh! Well give me a half dollar then."

Lorraine Barbour: "Where did you get the notion that Cleopatra was a flatiron?"

Gloria Downs: "'Cause it says in this book: 'Marc Anthony pressed his suit with Cleopatra.'"
